Olsen's Safe Battered Open

Store Loss Estimated At $2,000

Burglars Enter Building Through Large Ventilator

Burglars escaped with at least $2,000 after battering open a big safe at the A. J. Olsen Co. store on W. 5th St. Tuesday night or early today.

The intruders gained entry through a large sheet metal roof ventilator that runs vertically from the ceiling of the second floor of the structure through the attic to the top of the building.

THE SAFE was located in the store's office in the northeast corner of the second floor. The intruders pushed it away from the wall, then toppled it onto its back on the floor, using bundles of drapes from the store's stock to muffle the sound.

The burglars then battered through the metal door and its concrete lining. No tools were left at the scene except for a pair of heavy tin snips apparently taken from the store's basement. Broken, the snips were left lying on the floor alongside the safe.

Metal drawers in the interior of the safe were carried outside the office to the sales floor and then dumped. The intruders left behind many rolls of pennies and other small change, along with a mass of records.

—:—

POLICE were notified of the entry at 9:09 a. m. by Mrs. Ruby Dailey, an employe.

The investigation was conducted by Det. Capt. Kenneth H. Mooney and Det. William A. Devon. Capt. Charles E. (Bill) Tice and Patrolman Kenneth J. Montgomery also were at the scene.

The officers found a long electrical extension cord dangling through the opening from the attic. Store personnel said it probably was left behind by the burglars, since it was not the company's property.

The store is located at 115 W. 5th St., about 100 feet east of Peach Alley.

The ventilator through which entrance was gained is approximately three feet in diameter. It was not learned immediately if the intruders also left by the ventilator.

The two - story building fronts on W. 5th St. and extends north to Summit Ln. Access to the roof apparently was gained from the rear.

BATTERED OPEN BY BURGLARS, this big safe yielded about $2,000 in an entry Tuesday night or early today at the A. J. Olsen Co. store on W. 5th St. Det. Capt. Kenneth H. Mooney, wearing a white jacket, studies the interior of the safe while directing an investigation of the entry. Intruders entered through a roof ventilator, then flipped the safe onto its back and smashed open the door.

Senate OKs Tax Boost, Fund Slash

10% Surtax, Excise Levy, $6 Billion Cut Given Approval

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has voted for hiking taxes while holding down federal spending but election-year consideration and a parliamentary squabble with the House casts doubts on the final congressional verdict.

The Senate voted 57 to 31 Tuesday for a bill combining three major provisions:

—The 10 per cent surcharge on income taxes proposed by President Johnson, which has been blocked in the House Ways and Means Committee since last summer.

—A $6 billion reduction in federal spending.

—Extension of federal excise taxes on cars and telephone service.

Backers of the tax hike-spending cut proposal voiced confidence the Senate's strong endorsement of the measure boosted prospects for an eventual tax increase and some House members agreed with that analysis.

But the Senate vote also demonstrated that most congress members up for re-election this November may not be enthusiastic about voting for a tax increase.

Of the 28 senators expected to seek re-election this year, 19 voted against Tuesday's package proposal.

This problem is likely to be accentuated in the House, where all 435 members face re-election.

House and Senate conferees charged with forging a bill acceptable to both chambers scheduled their first meeting for late today.

Advance word from the House conferees was they would look favorably on few if any of the 18 provisions approved by the Senate.

The House traditionally has been jealous of its constitutional prerogative to originate tax measures in its Ways and Means Committee. Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., of the Senate Finance Committee, manager of the original excise-tax bill, said he saw little chance the House would accept the package ammendments.

Set To Talk With U.S. On Bomb Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — North Vietnam said today in a broadcast monitored here it is ready to send representatives to meet with U.S. representatives to decide about an unconditional halt of the bombing of the North so that peace talks could begin.

A State Department spokesman had no immediate comment on the Hanoi announcement and it was not immediately clear whether the United States would regard the North Vietnamese statement as responding to President Johnson's newest offer.

The radio broadcast, in the Vietnamese language, said as translated here:

It is clear that the U. S. government has not correctly and fully responded to the just demand of DRV (North Vietnamese) government, of U.S. progressive opinion, and of world opinion.

Ready To Contact U. S.

"However, on its part, the DRV government declares its readiness to send its representatives to make contact with U.S. representatives to decide with the U.S. side the unconditional cessation of bombing and all other war acts against the DRV so that talks could begin."

The North Vietnamese language broadcast arrived more than an hour ahead of a scheduled 11:15 a.m. EST announcement that Radio Hanoi had said it was going to make.

Presumably the North Vietnamese statement was to be an official response to Johnson's move for peace talks which he announced in his Sunday night speech.

Ordered Bombing Cutback

Johnson said Sunday night he had ordered air and naval attacks on North Vietnam stopped "except in the area north of the Demilitarized Zone where the continuing enemy build-up directly threatens allied forward positions and where movements of troops and supplies are clearly related to that threat."

Johnson said he had ordered the cutback in the bombing as a unilateral act by the United States to induce North Vietnam to enter into negotiations to end the war.

The key part of the Hanoi broadcast was preceded by denunciation of U.S. "imperialism."

"During the past more than 10 years," Hanoi radio said, "U.S. imperialism has brazenly violated the 1954 Geneva Agreements on Vietnam, endeavored to implement its interventionist and aggressive policy, and waged a war against the Vietnamese people.

Hearing Continues Before Lisbon Jury In Theft At Market

LISBON — Richard L. Thorn 27, of Richmond RD 1 told a Common Pleas Court jury this morning he was at the home of his sister in Steubenville the night of Oct. 15 when the state claims he participated in a burglary at Loblaw's Market on Dresden Ave., East Liverpool.

Mrs. Nina McCartney, 24, the sister, testified Richard, Sam Shepherd, 20, and Larry Latrell, both of Steubenville, came to her house about 10 p.m. Oct. 15, a Sunday, and that Richard stayed all night.

The state's final witness Tuesday afternoon was Vincent M. Dimichele, 26, of 115 Wellday Ave., Steubenville, who has pleaded guilty to the Loblaw burglary. Shepherd, like Thorne, pleaded not guilty, Dimichelle testified he loaned a panel truck to Thorne and Shepherd about 9:30 p. m. Oct. 15 and they returned about 2 a. m. to report they had broken into a food store in East Liverpool.

He said he then went to the store with them and that Thorne remained in the truck and stowed the boxes of merchandise which he (Dimichele) and Shepherd carried from the building.

Thorne testified he and Shepherd borrowed Wicky's (Dimichele) truck early Sunday evening to haul "a couple of bushels" of laundry to a laundromat. He said he and Shepherd did the laundry, returned it to his sister's house then returned

Push To Lift Khe Sanh Siege

U.S., South Viet Open Offensive

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. and South Vietnamese troops have opened a drive to lift the North Vietnamese siege of the Marine base at Khe Sanh and have met no resistance, the American command said today.

The relief force was expected to push through soon to the battered fortress in the northwest, where 6,000 Marines and 1,000 South Vietnamese have been encircled since January by from 16,000 to 20,000 North Vietnamese regulars.

As this drive, which kicked off Monday, was announced, informed sources said that a Cambodian navy boat shot down a U.S. Navy plane on patrol off the west coast of South Vietnam.

The patrol plane was looking for gun-running Viet Cong trawlers in the Gulf of Siam. Its 10-man crew was missing.

In the advance on Khe Sanh, U.S. 1st Cavalry Division troopers were cooperating with Marines and South Vietnamese troops. In all, 8,000 troops were engaged in the drive.

The advance is west over National Highway 9 from Ca Lu to Khe Sanh, and the relief force has covered about one- third of the distance, the report said.

"We want to open a road and defeat any enemy we encounter," said Maj. Gen. John J. Tollson of New Bern, N.C., commander of the cavalry division who has assumed control of the operation called Pegasus.

State Closes Testimony In Slaying Case

NEW CUMBERLAND — The state rested its case Wednesday after calling nine additional witnesses to testify in the first degree murder trial of Kenneth J. Butler of Sistersville.

One of the witnesses, a firearms expert from the state police, identified the pistol found in the auto of the defendant as the one that fired the fatal shots in the death of Linda Kay Peck, 21, of Weirton.

Buter was indicted by the September Hancock County Grand Jury in the death of the woman in the early morning hours of July 23.

The firearms expert, Sgt. Ralph Langley, told the jury tests he conducted indicated the spent bullets removed from the body of the victim and found on the porch where the victim

Humphrey Step Waited Thursday

McCarthy 'Bolsters' Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters are laying groundwork for a possible presidential try by Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy has strengthened his bid for the Democratic nomination with a majority victory in Wisconsin.

But the vice president told newsmen Tuesday night he has not decided yet whether to enter the race. "I'll let you know when I do," he said.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark D-Pa., said he expects the announcement Thursday at an AFL-CIO convention in Pittsburgh. But an aide said Humphrey won't make his decision "for a couple of weeks or more."

Texas Democrats—in what they agreed was a long-range effort to throw state party machinery behind Humphrey — unanimously endorsed Gov. John Connally Tuesday as a favorite-son candidate.

And a Humphrey for president drive was launched by prominent Democrats in the vice president's home state of Minnesota.

McCarthy's Wisconsin vote ran 57 per cent to 35 per cent for President Johnson, whose name stayed on the ballot despite his Sunday night announcement he won't seek re-election.

Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon's vote ran about 80 per cent to 10 per cent for California Gov. Ronald Reagan.

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, McCarthy's major rival so far, got about 7 per cent of the vote on write-ins.

Kennedp praised McCarthy for "an outstanding job" of presenting the Vietnam war and other issues in Wisconsin and New Hampshire, and added: "I am presenting my case across the rest of the country."

A referendum on the ballot in Madison for immediate ceasefire and U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam was defeated.

Humphrey said he had "no time frame" on when to decide whether he should run for president and said he did not talk to President Johnson Tuesday about the prospects.

In addition to Clark's announcement, the Columbus Citizen-Journal quoted unnamed Ohio Democrats as saying Humphrey aides had told them he will announce Thursday as a candidate.

The nation's Democratic governors have been invited to meet in St. Louis April 15 to discuss "recent political events"—

De Gaulle Says Bomb Curb First Peace Step

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle today described the U.S. move to de-escalate the war in Vietnam "as an act of reason and political courage."

In his first public comment on President Johnson's limitation of U.S. bombing of North Vietnam, De Gaulle called the move "a first step toward peace."

However, De Gaulle pointed out that the bombing halt was "neither general, nor unconditional." This seemed to be a reference to North Vietnamese conditions that all attacks on North Vietnam must cease before peace talks can begin.

State Closes Testimony In Slaying Case

NEW CUMBERLAND — The state rested its case Wednesday after calling nine additional witnesses to testify in the first degree murder trial of Kenneth J. Butler of Sistersville.

One of the witnesses, a firearms expert from the state police, identified the pistol found in the auto of the defendant as the one that fired the fatal shots in the death of Linda Kay Peck, 21, of Weirton.

Buter was indicted by the September Hancock County Grand Jury in the death of the woman in the early morning hours of July 23.

The firearms expert, Sgt. Ralph Langley, told the jury tests he conducted indicated the spent bullets removed from the body of the victim and found on the porch where the victim

During Rotary Club Meeting

Students Review Institute Visit

The need for more awareness on the part of students in the potential growth of world communism was emphasized as three area high school students discussed their experiences at the World Affairs Institute in Cincinnati during Tuesday's noon meeting of the Rotary Club in the Travelers Hotel.

Reviewing the March 15 assembly were Fred McCoy of Oak Glen High School, Keith Steiner of Beaver Local and Tom Chambers of East Liverpool.

They were sponsored by Rotary at the institute.

THE THREE pointed out that they found many of the students from other states more widely informed about communism than they.

Chambers said he will suggest that a world affairs class be instituted in the high school here.

He told the Rotarians that a study of the methods and ideology of communism currently runs about six weeks during the senior year as part of the American Government classes. He pointed out this is hardly sufficient time to learn a great deal about communism and suggested a world affairs class could help fill the gap.

Chambers said he met with many students at the institute who were knowledgeable in all fields of world politics and felt himself lacking in some ways since he has had no such instruction here.

"East Liverpool doesn't have anything like this," he declared. "There is little training on communism and world affairs."

—:—

THE YOUTHS said the institute caused them to think and try to arrive at their own answers instead of having answers thrown to them.

Steiner declared he too was impressed with the high-caliber of the youths who attended. "Above all," he said, "they are intelligent.

Some 1,200 students from Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky and Indiana attended.

Steiner noted events in the two intervening weeks since the institute have so changed the international political situation he could hardly relate some of the discussions there to recent occurrences.

McCoy called the speakers "most impressive." Most notable, he said, were Dr. William E. Griffith, director of the international communism center at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who spoke on "International Communism, Past and Future," and Sen. Gale W. McGee of Wyoming, who talked on the "Challenges of International Communism through the 1970s."

He added he was impressed, as the members broke into small discussion groups, with the State Department's knowledge of the Soviet Union's military workings.

CONCLUSIONS in his discussion group, he said, are that Communism currently is leaning toward a Marxist - Socialist philosophy.

He added, in his group was an exchange student from South Africa, which added a "bonus" to the talks in that he was able to learn much about that area of the world.

Chambers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Chambers of E. 5th St.; Steiner, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Steiner of the Cannons Mills Rd., and McCoy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McCoy of New Cumberland RD 2.

Joseph W. C. Cooper was program chairman. Charles Lang introduced the three. He is chairman of the club's youth service committee.

Carl Pelini, vice president, was in charge.

Mental Health Group Will Meet Thursday

"The Vocational Rehabilitation of the Mentally Restored in West Virginia" will be the topic for a discussion by Roy L. Lane at a meeting of the Hancock - Brooke County Mental Health Society Thursday at 8 p. m. in the doctor's dining room at Weirton General Hospital.

Lane, originally from the Arkansas - Oklahoma area, is a graduate of Arkansas Tech College, where he received his B.A. degree in language and literature. He was counselor for the Division of Vocation Rehabilitation in the Wheeling District III office prior to his assignment in Weirton in June 1967 as counselor in charge of the local office, which serves all of Hancock County and part of Brooke County.

Mrs. John L. Sullivan is program chairman.

No Choice For Successor, W.Va. Governor Discloses

CHARLESTON (AP) — The field for political guesswork was wide open today in the wake of Gov. Hulett Smith's "hands-off attitude" on Democratic nominees for governor.

Gov. Smith held a news conference in the capitol press room yesterday afternoon and said he had no public preference for a successor.

"I am adopting a strictly hands-off policy," he said in something of a surprise move since he indicated months ago he would announce his preference for the Democratic nomination.

The governor said he had not yet decided for whom he would vote in the May 14 primary but added that when he did reach a decision, he would keep it to himself.

"I am a great believer in the secrecy of the ballot," the governor said. "I am going to keep my personal preferences to myself."

Smith listed Atty. Gen C. Donald Robertson, state Sen. Paul J. Kaufman and state Democratic chairman James M. Sprouse as the "three major candidates" and added that any of them "could carry forward many of the progressive programs initiated and supported by my administration."

"I am confident," he said, "any of the three can defeat the Republican nominee in the November general election."

Smith spiked reports that he had preferred Robertson in earlier conversations with some state government department heads.

The "hands-off" policy, Smith said, will apply to contests in races for Board of Public Works races and the Supreme Court as well.

A poll which Smith refused to identify listed Robertson in first place, Sprouse second and Kaufman third.

Thief Takes Clothing In Looting Parked Car

A Travelers Hotel resident complained to police Tuesday his auto was looted of clothing worth nearly $200 while parked on a nearby lot Monday night or early yesterday.

Joseph Mimento said the thief gained entry to the car by forcing a wing window on the right side, then ripped out the ignition wiring and ransacked the glove compartment.

The thief took two suits — one blue and one gray — valued at $90 each, a white shirt, a necktie and a pair of shoes, Mimento said.

Staying With The Books

We can almost hear parents and teachers say "Amen" to the advice offered by the keynote speaker at East Liverpool High School vocational conference this week.

"Don't be a drop out," Bill Landmesser of the Titanium Metals Corp. at Toronto urged the young people.

If only those who are considering calling it quits could realize the lifetime of frustration which results from shortchanging themselves on schooling, they would stay with it.

In fact, if those who are just sliding through could honestly listen to the generation which dogged it with the books in the 1950's, they too would shape up.

Life is much too complicated for anyone to exist happily and comfotably withorut adequate training; as Landmesser pointed out, even the common manual laborer is being replaced by machines, and the handyman has to have an electronics background to repair a clock.

The boy or girl who is willing to settle for washing cars or shoving supermarket carts as a living should set up a new set of goals right now. If they don't, they'll end up trying to set up new goals later — and one of them will be attempting to keep from being laughed at by those who finished high school and earned a diploma.

Better Than Buck-Passing

North Hancock County residents who have been disturbed by inaction on needed road repairs were heartened by the visit of Gov. Hulett Smith to their areas for a firsthand look at the highway conditions.

The Governor was not able to promise that improvement projects would get under way immediately; in fact, he explained that the problems in Hancock are not different from those throughout West Virginia — and the answer is more highway money.

But he did indicate he would have cost estimates obtained on the needed improvements, and he showed an apparent real interest in getting something done.

The visit brought the Chester area people and the Governor closer to understanding each other's problems, and may bring actual results in the future. This certainly is better than the buck-passing and third-hand promises which have marked some previous efforts to get something done about the roads.

Taking Aim On Urban Problems

Massachusetts Institute of Technology has added a new wrinkle to the awesome task of tackling urban problems on a practical level.

Next fall the Institute will make 12 of its assistant professors available as full-time employes for cities with urban problems. They will work for a full year before resuming teaching careers at M.I.T.

The cities will pay their salaries but M.I.T. will absorb moving expenses.

College and university personnel have served as consultants to city officials on urban affairs but the M.I.T. program will be the first of its kind.

The academic community often has been accused of being remote, too far removed from day-to-day problems to be fully effective in teaching.

We can think of no better way to bridge that gap than by exposing future professors to the raw problems and frustrations that plague city officials from coast to coast.

The experiment will establish a dual flow of understanding. The M.I.T. men will be learning from first-hand research while they bring their knowledge to bear upon the problems at hand.

Dr. Howard Johnson, president of M.I.T., puts it this way: "The most effective transfer of information, knowledge and technological know-how can be accomplished by people moving between one sector and another, carrying both an understanding of the needs and an approach to systematic solution of problems."

The project will be watched carefully to see if it will become a new tool in the continuing fight to solve urban problems.

We believe it has merit.

A Chance To Be A Statesman

President Johnson, while announcing a cutback in the bombing of North Vietnam, dropped a political bomb destined to have large-scale ramifications in both Democratic and Republican parties.

Surprise has been the unanimous reaction to the President's declaration that he will not seek nor accept his party's nomination for another term.

The move was unexpected because it isn't like Lyndon Johnson to back away from a political fight regardless of circumstances or consequences. The campaign would have been doubly challenging for the President since Sen. Bobby Kennedy would have been one of his adversaries.

Johnson opponents, after the initial stunning effect of his pronouncement wore off, were skeptical. They smelled a political ploy with a draft movement in mind.

President Johnson quickly dispelled those ideas at an impromptu news conference. He termed his deci ion "completely irrevocable."

Speculation then shifted to what effect his action will have on the political picture. Democrats are wondering if this shoots Sen. Kennedy into the lead; what will it do to Sen. Eugene McCarthy's campaign and where does Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey fit in?

Sen. Kennedy's move into the race now looks less like a useless gesture and more like the decisive action of an astute politician who had some inkling of the President's mood.

On the Republican side, Richard M. Nixon expressed the same surprise at the President's decision as other Americans. He undoubtedly is reassessing his position in relation to declared and undeclared candidates.

Supporters of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller have moved into high gear in an effort to get him into the Republican fray.

It still is much too early to assess fully the long-range effect of the latest surprise in this zany election year. It certainly will affect the political scene. Just how much will probably be argued perpetually by political buffs.

Assuredly, the question on many minds at this time is: Will the President's position help bring a solution to the Vietnam War? Again, opinion is divided.

One aspect of the situation is clear. If there is anything Lyndon B. Johnson wants more than to be known as a good politician, it is to go down in history as a good president.

He now has cleared the way for Lyndon B. Johnson to be recorded and remembered as a stateman because he now is free to make decisions that have to be made without weighing their political impact.

He is free to act in the best interest of the nation. If he can bring peace to Vietnam and reunite a divided America, he will have achieved his goal. He will have served his nation well and its citizens will be indebted to him.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

It is not my practice to answer letters directed to me concerning my work on the bench. I will allow the record to speak for itself.

However, departures from the truth should not go unanswered. Hence, to Edward C. Henry of Wellsville, re your letter of 4-1-68:

1. You were treated with respect.

2. Why not tell the public you have not paid your fine yet? We are still holding your operator's license as surety. Because you are a school teacher, the court allowed you to turn in your license instead of being placed in jail.

3. Because you are a school teacher, you should set an example for your pupils.

4. You stated that in "my case, two violators prosecuted for twice the speeding violation as mine were fined less."

Our records indicate that no other speeding cases were on the docket that day. Again you have departed from the truth.

Tut! Tut! Mr. Henry. What is it they say about ". . .glass houses. . .?"

VICTOR RIESEL

Crash Program For Ghettos

WASHINGTON — There's nothing inevitable about Molotov cocktails or ghetto tenements burning crisply in the flames of a red hot summer. There are easier ways to cure urban blight.

Victor Riesel

An unreported, go-go formula for ripping out the inner slum core of the big cities was developed quietly behind closed doors by a band of men long thought to be the least likely to unleash a deluge of new housing and open at least a million new jobs for Negroes right on their own streets.

Those men who devised the formula for the frontal attack on the inner city make up the rick-ribbed inner core of American labor — the 18 leaders of the Building and Construction Trades Dept. (AFL-CIO). Most are dour men — virtually labor's founding fathers. They did not rush to the mimeograph machines with philosophical paeans on poverty.

They simply met in a closed room in the Bal Harbour, Fla. Hotel Americana on Feb. 13 and decided to attack the social crisis of 1968 as they did the military crisis of 1941.

In that salon with the construction trades' 18 chiefs were AFL-CIO president George Meany; Harvard's curmudgeon, John Dunlop, member of the Graduate School of Public Administration, a power in massive construction's labor-management circles; Lane Kirland, the one-man inner secretariat of the AFL-CIO; and the labor leader who revels in anonymity, the electrical workers' Joe Keenan, adviser to presidents for decades on this front.

THE CRISSCROSSING dialogues had one motif — the time had come. Let no one say that everyone was happy, for go-go meant ripping asunder old traditions, territories, and restricted membership roasters. Nonetheless, these political-industrial pachyderms decided to move. They did.

They appointed an administrative committee made up of the Carpenters' Maurice Hutcheons, the Laborers' Peter Fosco, the Plumbers' Peter Schoemann, the Electrical Brotherhood's Gordon Freeman, the Operating Engineers' Hunter Wharton and Building Trades Department president Neal Haggerty.

Collectively these men of another generation could stop all American industry dead. Collectively they can — literally — get up the manpower to move mountains or remove ghettos.

Their next move was making contact with the President's Committee on Urban Housing, the Kaiser Committee.

These influential men will soon be talking with the Kaiser group about ponderous matters — construction in the "trillions."

As they see it, this means that America's biggest contractors will have to be moved in for the basic organization work. No small contractor can guarantee to tear 20 square blocks of grisly ghetto out of a Harlem, a Watts or a Chicago slum.

But no one of the giant contractors in the hundred billion dollar building and construction industry will move in without guarantees that he will not be stuck in some labor swamp dug for him by feuding local unions.

So it's safe to predict that the department's new administrative committee will come to Kaiser's group with a formula which once worked: they'll offer a national agreement similar to the one which was developed and made public on July 24, 1941.

At that time, the late Sidney Hillman, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, was associate director general of the Office of Production Management.

These United States, faced by world war, had to build in a hurry — especially military training camps. So there was a tripartite agreement with contractors and government agencies such as the Army and Navy. The nation needed a crash construction program. They got it.

PRACTICALLY THE SAME MEN, or their immediate predecessors, agreed there would be industrial peace. Joe Keenan authored the agreement.

Now, almost 27 years later, there is a new war on the home front — bitter and explosive. So Keenan and his colleagues have updated the proposals.

They are ready to agree to a no-strike pact. They will promise that the contractors and the government will not be caught in jurisdictional wars between unions.

They propose pre-construction conferences at which agreements will be hammered out on wages, fringes, uniform overtime, uniform shifts, predetermination of all possible rules and payments.

And predetermination of the hiring and training of apprentices — meaning Negroes by the scores of thousands.

This is the antidote to the Molotov cocktail. This can be the roaring retort to extremists' cries of burn, baby, burn.

Give the building trades unions leaders credit for moving along, even if the road was tread by painful inches.

BUT NEITHER they nor the public should overlook the clause in the Demonstration cities and Metropolitan Development Act — the model cities law of 1966.

It says that there must be maximum opportunities for residents of the area in all phases of the programs which redevelop them. And there must be full opportunity for training.

Again, here, this translates into the hiring of Negroes — not only of those who "qualify," but those, no matter how raw, who can possibly be turned into skilled and semiskilled workers at the generous building trades rates.

There will be outcries. There will be charges that the program will be controlled at the bottom by local unions and contractors.

So the administrative committee is recommending a network of local and regional review boards. These will pyramid up to a national review board.

Thus, with the money coming from the government, the management know-how from the biggest contractors of all, the skills provided by the old union craftsmen, and the ghetto kids taken off the street corners and taught to earn a day's pay, urban America can be remade.

There's nothing inevitable about a Molotov cocktail.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — A Junior Tri-Hi-Y organization was organized at the high school.

Miss Susan Groglode, a student at Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, spent the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Groglode of Park Blvd.

Rhodda E. Donaldson and Jean Marie Wilcox of Aten Ave. and Mary Lou Fishback of Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, student nurses at the Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville, began a three-month course at Massillon State Hospital.

With America's preparedness in the news, a "National Security" bulletin board was installed in the Diamond to provide information on the country's manpower needs and other topics.

TEN YEARS AGO — Airman IC Jack A. Pike of Rogers was named "Airman of the Month" with the 656th air control and warning squadron at Saratoga Springs, N. C.

Mrs. Earl Lawrence was retained for a second term as president of the WSCS of the Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist Church.

Red Hopes

Some of the most sensational news of what is going on around the world comes out in small fragments from time to time and is not always pieced together so that people may understand its true significance.

Today, for instance, Red China is engaged in a far-reaching revolutionary movement aimed at underdeveloped countries — nearly 100 in number and with two thirds of the world's population. Subversion and infiltration and the training and arming of terrorist and guerrilla fighters are widespread. Much of this activity has been encouraged by the success of the Red Chinese in Vietnam.

The Peking government now is planting the seeds of more "wars of liberation" patterned after the Vietnam conflict. Information collected from various capitals of the world, in an article based on a survey just made by staff correspondents of "U.S. News & World Report," indicates that the Red Chinese are making substantial progress.

BURMA IS BEING threatened, and is moving army units in the area between Red China and India, where the Chinese Reds openly support Burmese rebels. Red China is reaching into northeast India to help rebel tribes. From Cambodia, Thailand, Indonesia, Malaysia and Borneo come reports of guerrillas operating with Chinese-made arms.

The Soviet Union is by no means standing aloof. In the Mideast, for instance, it trains and arms Arab armies, while Red China works with Arab terrorists. Israel has revealed that some of the terrorist leaders captured in recent raids in Jordan had been trained in Red China for such missions.

Throughout Africa, too, Red China is very active. Race wars between black and white are being encouraged. The Red Chinese have bases in Tanzania and in the Congo. A secret school for guerrillas is operating near an African port, where Chinese ships bring arms, equipment and supplies. Sabotage and terrorism are being taught in four language groups — French, English, Spanish and Portuguese — by instructors from Red China and Castro's Cuba. The result of this is trouble in Spanish Guinea, Portuguese Africa and Rhodesia.

Even in Europe the Chinese Reds have a foothold through Albania, and they carry on a lot of mischief-making in other European countries and in neighboring areas. The London Times, for instance, tells of the work of some of the Chinese agents in Syria, Egypt and Algeria, as well as in London, Paris and Brussels. The Times says that advice and funds are obtained at the Red Chinese embassy in London, which is a kind of headquarters for the Western European operation.

In this hemisphere, Chinese Reds have a base in Cuba. Castro is inclined toward Peking's tactics, and his agents spread the gospel of the Red Chinese throughout Latin America. The formula is designed to align the poor against the rich and the "countryside against the city."

There are signs that large-scale guerrilla war now is contemplated. The objective, of course, is to create revolutionary conditions everywhere. The Russians are not averse to this, because it means that the major powers of the world will be diverting their military strength to try to maintain peace in the various localities where crises emerge.

ODDLY ENOUGH, the United Nations, which is supposed to provide a peace-keeping machinery throughout the world, avoids interference in "internal affairs." This policy is followed even though it is known that domestic conditions in several countries are deliberately worsened from the outside as disorders are instigated by Red Chinese who are experts in revolutionary tactics.

If the strong nations do not unite somehow to thwart the start of small wars around the globe, it seems certain that sooner or later the major powers will find themselves involved, and the problems will be as frustrating as they now are in Vietnam.

The Red Chinese are delighted with their own progress. Over the weekend, the embassy of Red China in London issued a statement in behalf of the vice premier and foreign minister, Marshall Chen Yi, which said: "The international situation is excellent."

Staying With The Books

We can almost hear parents and teachers say "Amen" to the advice offered by the key-note speaker at East Liverpool High School vocational conference this week.

"Don't be a drop out," Bill Landmesser of the Titanium Metals Corp. at Toronto urged the young people.

If only those who are considering calling it quits could realize the lifetime of frustration which results from shortchanging themselves on schooling, they would stay with it.

In fact, if those who are just sliding through could honestly listen to the generation which dogged it with the books in the 1950's, they too would shape up.

Life is much too complicated for anyone to exist happily and comfotably withorut adequate training; as Landmesser pointed out, even the common manual laborer is being replaced by machines, and the handyman has to have an electronics background to repair a clock.

The boy or girl who is willing to settle for washing cars or shoving supermarket carts as a living should set up a new set of goals right now. If they don't, they'll end up trying to set up new goals later — and one of them will be attempting to keep from being laughed at by those who finished high school and earned a diploma.

Better Than Buck-Passing

North Hancock County residents who have been disturbed by inaction on needed road repairs were heartened by the visit of Gov. Hulett Smith to their areas for a firsthand look at the highway conditions.

The Governor was not able to promise that improvement projects would get under way immediately; in fact, he explained that the problems in Hancock are not different from those throughout West Virginia — and the answer is more highway money.

But he did indicate he would have cost estimates obtained on the needed improvements, and he showed an apparent real interest in getting something done.

The visit brought the Chester area people and the Governor closer to understanding each other's problems, and may bring actual results in the future. This certainly is better than the buck-passing and third-hand promises which have marked some previous efforts to get something done about the roads.

Taking Aim On Urban Problems

Massachusetts Institute of Technology has added a new wrinkle to the awesome task of tackling urban problems on a practical level.

Next fall the Institute will make 12 of its assistant professors available as full-time employes for cities with urban problems. They will work for a full year before resuming teaching careers at M.I.T.

The cities will pay their salaries but M.I.T. will absorb moving expenses.

College and university personnel have served as consultants to city officials on urban affairs but the M.I.T. program will be the first of its kind.

The academic community often has been accused of being remote, too far removed from day-to-day problems to be fully effective in teaching.

We can think of no better way to bridge that gap than by exposing future professors to the raw problems and frustrations that plague city officials from coast to coast.

The experiment will establish a dual flow of understanding. The M.I.T. men will be learning from first-hand research while they bring their knowledge to bear upon the problems at hand.

Dr. Howard Johnson, president of M.I.T., puts it this way: "The most effective transfer of information, knowledge and technological know-how can be accomplished by people moving between one sector and another, carrying both an understanding of the needs and an approach to systematic solution of problems."

The project will be watched carefully to see if it will become a new tool in the continuing fight to solve urban problems.

We believe it has merit.

A Chance To Be A Statesman

President Johnson, while announcing a cutback in the bombing of North Vietnam, dropped a political bomb destined to have large-scale ramifications in both Democratic and Republican parties.

Surprise has been the unanimous reaction to the President's declaration that he will not seek nor accept his party's nomination for another term.

The move was unexpected because it isn't like Lyndon Johnson to back away from a political fight regardless of circumstances or consequences. The campaign would have been doubly challenging for the President since Sen. Bobby Kennedy would have been one of his adversaries.

Johnson opponents, after the initial stunning effect of his pronouncement wore off, were skeptical. They smelled a political ploy with a draft movement in mind.

President Johnson quickly dispelled those ideas at an impromptu news conference. He termed his decision "completely irrevocable."

Speculation then shifted to what effect his action will have on the political picture. Democrats are wondering if this shoots Sen. Kennedy into the lead; what will it do to Sen. Eugene McCarthy's campaign and where does Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey fit in?

Sen. Kennedy's move into the race now looks less like a useless gesture and more like the decisive action of an astute politician who had some inkling of the President's mood.

On the Republican side, Richard M. Nixon expressed the same surprise at the President's decision as other Americans. He undoubtedly is reassessing his position in relation to declared and undeclared candidates.

Supporters of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller have moved into high gear in an effort to get him into the Republican fray.

It still is much too early to assess fully the long-range effect of the latest surprise in this zany election year. It certainly will affect the political scene. Just how much will probably be argued perpetually by political buffs.

Assuredly, the question on many minds at this time is: Will the President's position help bring a solution to the Vietnam War? Again, opinion is divided.

Pay Raises Are Included In New Wellsville Budget

other funds, by departments, with the 1967 expenditures in parentheses, follows:

Water and filtration plants, $[illegible] ($[illegible]); refuse, $38,-[illegible] ($[illegible]); streets and lights, $[illegible] ($40,181); state route $3,[illegible] ($2,918); sewage $55,450 ($[illegible]); cemetery $25,717 ($[illegible]); parking meters $5,505 ($[illegible]); water depreciation $[illegible] (includes $8,000 for investments and interests) ($1,-[illegible]); police pension $4,200 ($3,-[illegible]); firemen's pension, $4,822 ($[illegible]); cemetery trust, $1,400 ($[illegible]); high service water, $1,-[illegible] ($[illegible]); sewage disposal bond retirement, $23,360 ($23,-[illegible]); refuse disposal depreciation $6,000, and flood wall fund $10,205.

THE FINANCE committee, headed by Glen Mathess, drew up the tentative pay raises for city employes. If approved, the police and firemen will receive an additional $35 a month, the safety - service director $40 a month, the health registrar and nurse $10 a month and the health commissioner $5 a month.

Salaried employes' monthly pay would be as follows: $385 for filtration plant workers and $500 for the superintendent; $430 for the full-time water clerk and $280 for the other clerk; cemetery superintendent $395 and the storage superintendent $400.

Increases included in the schedule for hourly employes are:

Water and cemetery departments 18 cents ($2.09 an hour); refuse (this department did not receive a raise last year), 17 cents ($2.19), first helper ($2.09) and beginning help ($1.62); street department, 18 cents or $2.34 for the supervising worker and $2.19 an hour for the remaining two employes.

July 4 and Dec. 25 are scheduled as holidays for which most of the above employes will be paid. Jack Call, finance committee member, reported.

THE FINANCE committee will investigate hospitalization more deeply before making a recommendation, Call added.

He also pointed out that the old ordinances must be revised before the new pay raise ordinances can be drawn up.

In other business, Council approved the first reading of an ordinance calling for the creation of parking meter attendants.

Included are provisions that meter attendants be appointed by the director of public safety service, that they will receive $1.80 an hour and will be limited to a total combined time of 48 hours a week.

Nunzio Lombardozzi reported the target date for meter attendants to begin working is May 1.

Daniel Black of 403 15th St., speaking from the audience, complained about cars speeding on 15th St. Black said the excessive speeds are endangering the lives of children living in the area.

PAUL TODD, councilman-at-large, and Call pointed out residents could take the license number of a violater, report it and testify against him in mayor's court. They said Mayor William Daugherty has advised this be done to help control the problem.

Relative to speeding, Lombardozzi moved, upon a suggestion by Wayne Rose, council president, that an ordinance be prepared providing a penalty for "squealing" tires.

During committee reports, Call, water and sewage committee chairman, said his group had met with the county commissioners relative to water lines being extended to Russell Heights.

The commissioners reported the state has served notice that the cesspool drainage at Russell Heights is not acceptable.

Therefore, Call said, all efforts must be concentrated toward solving the sewage problem and extension of water lines to the area will have to come later.

An offer from Adam Frischkorn to let the city use his property for a right-of-way for water and sewage lines would have to be referred to the county commissioners, Call reported.

Russell Keefer, property committee chairman, said he has been trying to contact officials of the Ace Trucking Co. to offer to release city property on which truck depot could be built.

Keefer also reported he had received complaints relative to dumping refuse behind the American Legion Post 70 home. Rats are being drawn to the area, he added.

Rose said he has received complaints that a similar situation exists near the football stadium.

Keefer then suggested the refuse committee do something about removing it and take action to prevent further dumping in those areas.

struggle resolutely to defend their basic national rights."

At the White House, there was no official reaction pending a close look at the Hanoi pronouncement as monitored here.

The broadcast did not say that North Vietnam would be willing to come to the conference table outright. Instead, it said Hanoi's envoys were willing to contact American representatives to decide on "unconditional cessation of bombing—so that talks could begin."

Demanded Bombing Halt

The North Vietnamese have long demanded a complete and unconditional stop to the U.S. air attacks as a price for entering into peace talks—and the initial portion of Hanoi's broadcast today indicated the Communists were still taking that line.

WHEN DO YOU HAVE AN EMPTY STOMACH?

Sometimes a physician may direct you to take a medicine on an empty stomach. For example, some penicillin is about twice as effective when taken on an empty stomach. Three hours after a meal all the food in the stomach has moved to the next digestive process. It is empty.

If you do not exactly know how to use any medicine and your physician or dentist is not available to answer questions, ask us. The odds are we can immediately give you the correct answer. Never take chances. We are glad to help.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound and dispense yours?

21. In holding him to the grand jury, the court continued his $1,000 bond.

Burson described in detail the scene he said he witnessed about 2:28 a. m. as he stood on Market St. on the Diamond. He said his attention was attracted by loud voices and he saw "three people in a group" about 30 feet from Green Ln. on the east side of Dresden Ave. He said he saw a man strike a blow and saw another man fall down.

Burson said he later identified the three as Mr. Leigh, Charnock and Mrs. Lucy Leigh. He said he ran to the scene and found Mr. Leigh on his back on the sidewalk, unconscious. Burson said about the time he arrived the victim began to bleed from the nose and mouth. He sent passersby to notify the police department and summon an ambulance.

Records of Mr. Leigh's case from City Hospital and North Side Hospital at Youngstown also were entered in evidence. Taken first to City Hospital, he later was transferred to the Youngstown hospital, where he died about 14 hours after the incident.

Charnock was represented by Bernard Fineman. Solicitor J. Michael Kapp presented the prosecution's case.

had been shot as well as the five spent cartridge cases all came from the same weapon.

The weapon was identified as the one taken by city police from Butler's auto on the morning he was apprehended on Pennsylvania Ave. several hours after the body of the victim was discovered.

Two other witnesses, Mr. and Mrs. James Rhoades of 100 Shady Ave. Weirton, in their testimony placed Butler at the scene of the shooting shortly after it occurred.

The Rhodes told of stopping for a redlight at Cove Rd. near the residence of the victim and hearing a number of sounds like a firearm being discharged. They also identified Butler as the man they saw leaving the area by going between two houses.

The defense called six witnesses who testified to the movements of Butler prior to and after the shooting.

'Political Hypocricy' Charge Hurled At Moore By Beter

CHARLESTON (AP) — Republican gubernatorial candidate Peter D. Beter of Huntington has attacked what he called the "political hypocricy" of his primary rival, Arch Moore.

Moore claims he is a "seven-day-a-week congressman," said Beter, but at the same time maintains a full-time corporate law practice.

Beter said he would make a good governor because he wasn't a "politically hungry office seeker."

Beter and Moore appeared on a Charleston television debate Tuesday with the other two Republican hopefuls for governor, Cecil Underwood and Eddie Oales of Hinton.

Moore and Underwood, considered the strongest contenders for the GOP nomination, voiced no major policy differences.

Both urged improved road and education systems; both favored open housing; neither promised to tamper drastically with the existing tax structure; both supported constitutional revision.

Moore cited his 12 years of experience as a congressman and said he made "no apology" for spending his adult life in politics.

Underwood cited his previous term as West Virginia governor and said "I propose to pick up where I left off" in the state road building program.

Oales said he was "for a severance tax on all minerals and lumber. . .and against the gross sales tax because it hits at low income people." He said West Virginia's natural resources were a vast untapped source of revenue.

Both cars were northbound on Broadway. Wilson told police he was preparing to halt for a traffic light when his car was hit from the rear. 'Political Hypocricy' Charge Hurled At Moore By Beter

CHARLESTON (AP) — Republican gubernatorial candidate Peter D. Beter of Huntington has attacked what he called the "political hypocricy" of his primary rival, Arch Moore.

Moore claims he is a "seven-day-a-week congressman," said Beter, but at the same time maintains a full-time corporate law practice.

Beter said he would make a good governor because he wasn't a "politically hungry office seeker."

Beter and Moore appeared on a Charleston television debate Tuesday with the other two Republican hopefuls for governor, Cecil Underwood and Eddie Oales of Hinton.

Moore and Underwood, considered the strongest contenders for the GOP nomination, voiced no major policy differences.

Both urged improved road and education systems; both favored open housing; neither promised to tamper drastically with the existing tax structure; both supported constitutional revision.

Moore cited his 12 years of experience as a congressman and said he made "no apology" for spending his adult life in politics.

Underwood cited his previous term as West Virginia governor and said "I propose to pick up where I left off" in the state road building program.

Oales said he was "for a severance tax on all minerals and lumber. . .and against the gross sales tax because it hits at low income people." He said West Virginia's natural resources were a vast untapped source of revenue.

the truck to Dimichele at a tavern about 8:30 p. m.

Ronald Cragnole, Loblaw manager, testified yesterday the store lost $1,800 in merchandise, counting frozen food which had to be discarded because intruders left the locker door open.

The burglary was not discovered until 8 a. m. Oct. 16, but police obtained an important clue when they investigated a "suspicious vehicle" report from the market area about 11 p.m. Sunday.

Patolmen Charles Coen, James Woods and Howard Frontz testified they went to the area to check out a suspicious vehicle reported by Mrs. Louis Campbell of Trentvale St. behind the store.

Officers Cohen and Woods found a 1961 Green Ford panel truck parked just a few feet from the steps leading up to the Campbell home. The keys were in the ignition switch, but no one was around. Campbell, who went part way down his steps to investigate, said he saw three subjects by the truck.

The two officers took the license number, then checked the roof of Loblaw's, about a block away, while Patrolman Frontz was checking the store doors. "None of us found anything wrong," Coen said. Frontz said all the doors were secure.

Next morning after the burglary was reported, Detective William A. Devon ascertained ownership of the truck and he went to Steubenville to ask the chief of police for assistance. Capt. George Mavromatis of the detective bureau was assigned to help and located the truck and Dimichele, who was working on a home under construction in the west end of the city.

Devon testified Dimichele told them they could search the truck, and they found two cartons of cigarettes under a spare tire. The cartons carried the Loblaw market stamp.

Dimichele said it was then he admitted his part in the burglary and named the other two men. He said he called the other two that afternoon and told them he had informed police about the burglary.

That evening, he said, the accomplices prevailed upon him to dispose of his share of the merchandise which had been left at his house. He said they told him they already had gotten rid of theirs.

Devon testified Jefferson County officials subsequently called to report finding some burned material on Jewell Hill, near Toronto. Devon brought to City Hall all the identifiable items he could find, including burned meat with part of the label still legible. Pictures of the material, taken by Patrolman Winters, were admitted into evidence.

Other witnesses yesterday were Capt. Mavromatis; Herman Dailey, meat cutter who testified regarding the meat delivery Saturday afternoon, Oct. 14, and Marvin Stewart of Pleasant Heights, a Loblaw employe, who said he checked all the doors at quitting time Saturday night and found all of them locked.

Beck's Case Nearing Jury

WHEELING — The case of James M. Beck, arrested in the Nov. 5 gambling raid on the Red Dog near Chester, is expected to go to the jury today.

The government concluded its case against Beck Tuesday afternoon.

U. S. District Court Judge Robert E. Maxwell refused a directed verdict for Beck and the defense began calling witnesses in an effort to show that the defendant resides in the Chester area and not in Pittsburgh as alleged by the government.

After government Atty. William Hyatt rested the government's case, defense Atty. Richard W. Barnes of Wellsburg asked Judge Maxwell to direct a verdict for the defendant.

Barnes claimed the government failed to prove that the trips Beck made from Liberty Borough near Pittsburgh to the Chester area were for gambling purposes. He noted that, despite surveillance by Internal Revenue Service agents, Beck was not followed on any of the trips.

However, Judge Maxwell rejected the defense motion and said he felt the matter was "a jury question." The judge said he felt the jury should be the sole judge of whether the trips were made for gambling purposes or just for visiting.

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — George C. Wallace, the former Alabama governor campaigning for president as an independent, drew scant support in Wisconsin's presidential primary Tuesday.

age plan, voiced belief Johnson's Sunday night speech, urging passage of a tax hike and expressing willingness to accept a spending cut, swung enough votes to win Senate approval. Long said Johnson's announcement he would not seek re-election also won him Senate sympathy.

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., a co-sponsor of the package, agreed there was slight chance it would be accepted in the conference.

But Smathers, who will be a conferee, said he would insist that House leaders make some statement about greater friendliness toward a tax boost before he would agree to have the amendment dropped.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., the other co-sponsor, told a reporter he would be unwilling to settle for such a statement.

"Either we get a tax increase on this bill or I don't think we will get it," he said.

"If we wait for the House to act later, it will be close to the election, and it will never pass."

The package plan also calls for a $10 billion slash in new appropriations for the next year and a 315,000 rollback in the number of federal employes.

Other major amendments would:

—Repeal a freeze provision on federal matching funds for aid to Families with Dependent Children included in the 1967 Social Security act.

—Impose quotas on textile product imports, chiefly man-made fibers and woolens.

—End the tax exemption privilege on industrial development bonds effective next Jan. 1.

—Deny countries with outstanding debts to the United States the right to redeem their dollars in gold.

Coordinator Job Eyed By Council, Director, Mayor

Four members of City Council met informally Tuesday night with Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey to start compiling data on the duties of the new post of municipal planning coordinator.

Council provided $9,000 for the new office in the annual appropriation ordinance approved Friday — $6,000 for the salary for the balance of the year and $2,000 for expenses. The post is scheduled to pay $8,000 in all per year, plus $4,000 for expenses.

Council must enact legislation creating the job and spelling out the duties before the post can be filled. The officials agreed that appointment of the coordinator will be Council's prerogative. The appointee will be charged primarily with implementing the city's "master plan" for development and obtaining federal and state grants for local projects.

Council was represented by Edward Massey, Floyd Murray, Robert Sample and John Wilson, along with Norman Bucher, president.

Vietnam

"There should be enough here to keep us busy."

It was too soon to tell if a major battle would erupt when the relief force strikes the main North Vietnamese positions.

Informed sources reported that it was presumed a big air and sea search was under way for the patrol plane in the Gulf of Siam.

Antiaircraft guns on the Cambodian ship brought down the four-engine turboprop P3B Orion Monday, the sources said. The plane was reported over an area of the Gulf of Siam where the territorial waters of South Vietnam and Cambodia are not clearly defined, and some South Vietnamese islands are just off the Cambodian coast.

The plane apparently was the first American aircraft brought down by Cambodian guns.

The U.S. Command refused to discuss the plane's fate, presumably because of the ticklish situation between Cambodia and the United States. Cambodia's chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihnaouk, broke relations with the United States in 1965 and repeatedly has accused U.S. and South Vietnamese forces of violating his borders and attacking Cambodian border villages.

The United States in turn charges that Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces use Cambodia as a sanctuary from pursuing American and South Vietnamese forces and a safe supply route to South Vietnam.

Sihanouk has on exhibit in Phnom Penh, his capital, the wreckage of an American helicopter and a C123 twin-engine cargo transport. He says they were brought down inside Cambodian territory two years ago, but it is believed both were shot down by the Viet Cong.

The missing plane apparently was from Navy Patrol Squadron 26 based at Brunswick, Maine. A spokesman at the Naval Air Station there said Tuesday a P3B had been lost with 12 men aboard, not 10 as reported in Saigon.

The Orions usually operate about 50 miles off the Vietnamese Coast, alerting Allied air and sea forces to any suspicious shipping.

Meanwhile, American planes in the air war against North Vietnam attacked a railroad siding Tuesday within one mile of the northern boundary set by President Johnson in his bombing curtailment order.

With Hanoi, Haiphong and the rest of the northern part of North Vietnam barred to them, American pilots continued to increase their attacks on supply lines in the southern panhandle. Despite overcast skies and a visibility of only one to two miles, a total of 113 missions were flown Tuesday, eight more than on Monday and double the average number flown against the panhandle before Johnson's restriction.

The siding was 12 miles northeast of Thanh Hoa and about 225 miles above the demilitarized zone. Navy pilots also attacked the Bai Thuong airfield 22 miles northwest of Thanh Hoa and about 10 miles south of the northern limit.

Both raids penetrated deeper than the northernmost attack Monday, the first day of the bombing limits, when U.S. planes flew within 15 miles of the northern boundary to hit a supply base near Thanh Hoa.

Van Dyne Lists Burning Rules In Spring Cleanup

Fire Chief Alfred VanDyne has reminded East Liverpool residents they may burn trash and lawn cuttings during April as they complete spring housecleaning and gardening.

He said anything may be burned except tar paper, old tires and shingles or any substance which could cause excessive smoke.

The chief warned that when trash is being burned someone must be on hand at all times to see that the fire does not go out of control and endanger other property.

VanDyne cautioned that individuals will be responsible for any damage which may result to their property or neighbors as a result of carelessness.

City ordinances call for burning only in a 15-gallon garbage can perforated with holes. It can be purchased at most hardware stores, the chief said, and is designed especially for burning. Nothing else should be used, he added.

presumably including at least the possibility of a Humphrey candidacy.

The meeting was called by Iowa Gov. Harold E. Hughes, chairman of the Democratic National Governors Conference. An aide said Hughes called the meeting "because it was requested and not because of any idea of his own."

In other political developments:

—Kennedy said in Philadelphia Johnson's de-escalation of the war was helpful, but added: "We have to reexamine our whole position in Vietnam. We have to develop policies so that we never get involved in Vietnams again."

—In Omaha, McCarthy said it "would seem to be inconsistent" to continue bombing North Vietnam targets 200 miles north of the demilitarized zone. "I think that we're still involved in the same problem with reference to Vietnam," he said, "that is, how to proceed to negotiations and what to negotiate about."

—Michigan Gov. George Romney, who withdrew from the GOP presidential race, was asked if he would accept a draft and he replied: "That is purely theoretical."

—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said "the whole country is puzzled" by Johnson's decision not to seek reelection and to de-escalate the war. He said the decision "makes a new ball game all across the board."

Motorists Reminded On Deadline For Tags

The police department reminded motorists today that they have less than two weeks in which to obtain new Ohio license tags and place them on their cars.

The current license plates expire at midnight April 15. At 12:01 a. m. April 16, the new tags will be required—whether an auto is operated on the streets or highways or simply parked on a public thoroughfare.

The Bureau of Motor Vehicles has indicated there will be no extension of the current registration tags, so the police department expects to begin an immediate crackdown on vehicles found on public thoroughfares without proper license piates.

George Mavromatis of the detective bureau was assigned to help and located the truck and Dimichele, who was working on a home under construction in the west end of the city.

Devon testified Dimichele told them they could search the truck, and they found two cartons of cigarettes under a spare tire. The cartons carried the Loblaw market stamp.

Dimichele said it was then he admitted his part in the burglary and named the other two men. He said he called the other two that afternoon and told them he had informed police about the burglary.

That evening, he said, the accomplices prevailed upon him to dispose of his share of the merchandise which had been left at his house. He said they told him they already had gotten rid of theirs.

Devon testified Jefferson County officials subsequently called to report finding some burned material on Jewell Hill, near Toronto. Devon brought to City Hall all the identifiable items he could find, including burned meat with part of the label still legible. Pictures of the material, taken by Patrolman Winters, were admitted into evidence.

Other witnesses yesterday were Capt. Mavromatis; Herman Dailey, meat cutter who testified regarding the meat delivery Saturday afternoon, Oct. 14, and Marvin Stewart of Pleasant Heights, a Loblaw employe, who said he checked all the doors at quitting time Saturday night and found all of them locked.

Beck's Case Nearing Jury

WHEELING — The case of James M. Beck, arrested in the Nov. 5 gambling raid on the Red Dog near Chester, is expected to go to the jury today.

The government concluded its case against Beck Tuesday afternoon.

U. S. District Court Judge Robert E. Maxwell refused a directed verdict for Beck and the defense began calling witnesses in an effort to show that the defendant resides in the Chester area and not in Pittsburgh as alleged by the government.

After government Atty. William Hyatt rested the government's case, defense Atty. Richard W. Barnes of Wellsburg asked Judge Maxwell to direct a verdict for the defendant.

Barnes claimed the government failed to prove that the trips Beck made from Liberty Borough near Pittsburgh to the Chester area were for gambling purposes. He noted that, despite surveillance by Internal Revenue Service agents, Beck was not followed on any of the trips.

However, Judge Maxwell rejected the defense motion and said he felt the matter was "a jury question." The judge said he felt the jury should be the sole judge of whether the trips were made for gambling purposes or just for visiting.

Wallace Draws Scant Support In Wisconsin

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — George C. Wallace, the former Alabama governor campaigning for president as an independent, drew scant support in Wisconsin's presidential primary Tuesday.

He had a scattering of votes in both party races. The count: Wallace received 3,250 Democratic votes and 1,309 of the Republican total.

age plan, voiced belief Johnson's Sunday night speech, urging passage of a tax hike and expressing willingness to accept a spending cut, swung enough votes to win Senate approval. Long said Johnson's announcement he would not seek re-election also won him Senate sympathy.

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., a co-sponsor of the package, agreed there was slight chance it would be accepted in the conference.

But Smathers, who will be a conferee, said he would insist that House leaders make some statement about greater friendliness toward a tax boost before he would agree to have the amendment dropped.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., the other co-sponsor, told a reporter he would be unwilling to settle for such a statement.

"Either we get a tax increase on this bill or I don't think we will get it," he said.

"If we wait for the House to act later, it will be close to the election, and it will never pass."

The package plan also calls for a $10 billion slash in new appropriations for the next year and a 315,000 rollback in the number of federal employes.

Other major amendments would:

—Repeal a freeze provision on federal matching funds for aid to Families with Dependent Children included in the 1967 Social Security act.

—Impose quotas on textile product imports, chiefly man-made fibers and woolens.

—End the tax exemption privilege on industrial development bonds effective next Jan. 1.

—Deny countries with outstanding debts to the United States the right to redeem their dollars in gold.

Coordinator Job Eyed By Council, Director, Mayor

Four members of City Council met informally Tuesday night with Mayor George E. Willshaw and Safety - Service Director Robert E. Vodrey to start compiling data on the duties of the new post of municipal planning coordinator.

Council provided $9,000 for the new office in the annual appropriation ordinance approved Friday — $6,000 for the salary for the balance of the year and $2,000 for expenses. The post is scheduled to pay $8,000 in all per year, plus $4,000 for expenses.

Council must enact legislation creating the job and spelling out the duties before the post can be filled. The officials agreed that appointment of the coordinator will be Council's prerogative. The appointee will be charged primarily with implementing the city's "master plan" for development and obtaining federal and state grants for local projects.

Council was represented by Edward Massey, Floyd Murray, Robert Sample and John Wilson, along with Norman Bucher, president.

Vietnam

"There should be enough here to keep us busy."

It was too soon to tell if a major battle would erupt when the relief force strikes the main North Vietnamese positions.

Informed sources reported that it was presumed a big air and sea search was under way for the patrol plane in the Gulf of Siam.

Antiaircraft guns on the Cambodian ship brought down the four-engine turboprop P3B Orion Monday, the sources said. The plane was reported over an area of the Gulf of Siam where the territorial waters of South Vietnam and Cambodia are not clearly defined, and some South Vietnamese islands are just off the Cambodian coast.

The plane apparently was the first American aircraft brought down by Cambodian guns.

The U.S. Command refused to discuss the plane's fate, presumably because of the ticklish situation between Cambodia and the United States. Cambodia's chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihnaouk, broke relations with the United States in 1965 and repeatedly has accused U.S. and South Vietnamese forces of violating his borders and attacking Cambodian border villages.

The United States in turn charges that Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces use Cambodia as a sanctuary from pursuing American and South Vietnamese forces and a safe supply route to South Vietnam.

Sihanouk has on exhibit in Phnom Penh, his capital, the wreckage of an American helicopter and a C123 twin-engine cargo transport. He says they were brought down inside Cambodian territory two years ago, but it is believed both were shot down by the Viet Cong.

The missing plane apparently was from Navy Patrol Squadron 26 based at Brunswick, Maine. A spokesman at the Naval Air Station there said Tuesday a P3B had been lost with 12 men aboard, not 10 as reported in Saigon.

The Orions usually operate about 50 miles off the Vietnamese Coast, alerting Allied air and sea forces to any suspicious shipping.

Meanwhile, American planes in the air war against North Vietnam attacked a railroad siding Tuesday within one mile of the northern boundary set by President Johnson in his bombing curtailment order.

With Hanoi, Haiphong and the rest of the northern part of North Vietnam barred to them, American pilots continued to increase their attacks on supply lines in the southern panhandle. Despite overcast skies and a visibility of only one to two miles, a total of 113 missions were flown Tuesday, eight more than on Monday and double the average number flown against the panhandle before Johnson's restriction.

The siding was 12 miles northeast of Thanh Hoa and about 225 miles above the demilitarized zone. Navy pilots also attacked the Bai Thuong airfield 22 miles northwest of Thanh Hoa and about 10 miles south of the northern limit.

Both raids penetrated deeper than the northernmost attack Monday, the first day of the bombing limits, when U.S. planes flew within 15 miles of the northern boundary to hit a supply base near Thanh Hoa.

Van Dyne Lists Burning Rules In Spring Cleanup

Fire Chief Alfred VanDyne has reminded East Liverpool residents they may burn trash and lawn cuttings during April as they complete spring housecleaning and gardening.

He said anything may be burned except tar paper, old tires and shingles or any substance which could cause excessive smoke.

The chief warned that when trash is being burned someone must be on hand at all times to see that the fire does not go out of control and endanger other property.

VanDyne cautioned that individuals will be responsible for any damage which may result to their property or neighbors as a result of carelessness.

City ordinances call for burning only in a 15-gallon garbage can perforated with holes. It can be purchased at most hardware stores, the chief said, and is designed especially for burning. Nothing else should be used, he added.

presumably including at least the possibility of a Humphrey candidacy.

The meeting was called by Iowa Gov. Harold E. Hughes, chairman of the Democratic National Governors Conference. An aide said Hughes called the meeting "because it was requested and not because of any idea of his own."

In other political developments:

—Kennedy said in Philadelphia Johnson's de-escalation of the war was helpful, but added: "We have to reexamine our whole position in Vietnam. We have to develop policies so that we never get involved in Vietnams again."

—In Omaha, McCarthy said it "would seem to be inconsistent" to continue bombing North Vietnam targets 200 miles north of the demilitarized zone. "I think that we're still involved in the same problem with reference to Vietnam," he said, "that is, how to proceed to negotiations and what to negotiate about."

—Michigan Gov. George Romney, who withdrew from the GOP presidential race, was asked if he would accept a draft and he replied: "That is purely theoretical."

—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said "the whole country is puzzled" by Johnson's decision not to seek reelection and to de-escalate the war. He said the decision "makes a new ball game all across the board."

Motorists Reminded On Deadline For Tags

The police department reminded motorists today that they have less than two weeks in which to obtain new Ohio license tags and place them on their cars.

The current license plates expire at midnight April 15. At 12:01 a. m. April 16, the new tags will be required—whether an auto is operated on the streets or highways or simply parked on a public thoroughfare.

The Bureau of Motor Vehicles has indicated there will be no extension of the current registration tags, so the police department expects to begin an immediate crackdown on vehicles found on public thoroughfares without proper license piates.

Sports Whirled

Acting on a suggestion from my friend Jack Vodrey, I did a little research into this year's pro football draft.

The results are surprising, and point up how the pros don't overlook the small schools in picking prospects. The school that contributed the most players to the draft was not Notre Dame, Michigan State or Southern Cal, but little Jackson State in Mississippi. Jackson State had 11 players drafted by the pros, while Houston, Mississippi and Miami, Fla., had nine each, Notre Dame eight, Colorado, Tennessee, USC and UTEP seven each and Colorado State, Michigan State, Tulsa, Memphis State and Weber State of Utah six each.

The Southern Conference, paced by Mississippi and Tennessee, was the top conference, with 38 draftees, but the Southwestern Athletic Conference, headed by Jackson St., was next with 31. The SWAC is a group of Negro schools in Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas, with Southern U., Grambling and Texas Southern being tapped heavily by the pros.

The Big 10 showed up third with 28, followed by Western Athletic Conference 27, the Athletic Association of Western Universities (the old Pacific Coast Conference) 25, the Missouri Valley and Big 8 21 each, the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association, a group of Negro schools in Maryland, Virginia and the Carolinas, 16, the Atlantic Coast Conference 14, the Southwest Conference 12, the Mid-American Conference 10, the Big Sky Conference eight, the Southern Conference and the West Coast Athletic Conference seven each, the Ohio Valley Conference and the Yankee Conference four each and the Ivy League three.

DESPITE THE disappointing finish of the Pittsburgh Penguins, out of the NHL Stanley Cup playoffs, there were some consolations in the first NHL season in Pittsburgh. Andy Bathgate won the western division scoring title with 20 goals and 39 assists. The team finished only six points (three wins) behind the first place Philadelphia Flyers in one of the tightest races in NHL history. The Penguins actually had as many wins as the two teams that finished immediately ahead of them, St. Louis and Minnesota, but had less ties and more losses.

THE CHOICE of Salem for the sportsmanship award of the Big 8 Basketball Conference was a shocker to local fans. In games involving East Liverpool, Salem, in my opinion, displayed the poorest sportsmanship by players and fans of any team in the league. As someone from East Liverpool commented after the Quakers got the award at the league banquet Monday night, they must have considered Rick Liber a good sport because he didn't kick Bruce Christian after Liber jumped on Christian. Referees did the voting for the trophy.

Buzz Ridl, new coach at Pitt, revealed at the banquet that he has not yet signed any basketball recruits for the Panthers, and that he was at a disadvantage because of his late start. He said he thinks Pitt has a good chance to get Jerome Flowers of Rankin, who also has signed a letter of intent at Maryland. Ridl thinks that his assistant, Fran Webster, will succeed him at Westminster, though no formal action has been taken.

The three East Liverpool players present, Earl Diddle, Mitchell Jones and Jerry Christian, all came in for a lot of attention from college scouts. Diddle has more than 40 college offers and Jones has several. Christian, of course, is only a junior.

Kemple's Single Wins In Eighth

Senior righthander Bernie Lovejoy fired a no-hitter for the East Liverpool Potters yesterday but almost lost the game in the seventh inning and had to pitch eight frames before East Liverpool subdued Western Beaver 3-1 at Western.

Lovejoy walked seven men, but his teammates played errorless ball. The Potters had taken the lead in the sixth on a double by Kim Kemple and a single by Bill Montgomery, but in the last of the seventh the Golden Beavers almost pulled it out. Three walks loaded the basses with one on, and a suicide squeeze brought in the tying run. Darryl Dye tried another bunt and was barely thrown out to end the inning.

In the eighth Mike McVay doubled, Tom Chambers was safe on an error and then stole second. Kemple delivered a single to plate both runners and Lovejoy retired the side in order in the last half of the inning.

The win was the second in two starts for Jim Potts' club, while the game was the opener for Western Beaver.

San Francisco Wants Ron Williams In Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — Shaler Halimon, 3-foot-5 star of Utah State, has been drafted by the Philadelphia 76ers, champions of the National Basketball Association.

This was disclosed today by a spokesman for the 76ers in advance of the formal announcement from NBA headquarters in New York.

A spokesman for the NBA said the official first-round draft choices by all teams would be announced late today.

Franklin Mieuli, owner of the San Francisco Warriors, said he would draft Ron Williams, 6-3 West Virginia star "if he's available."

Bob Kauffman, 6-8 Little All-American from Guilford, N.C. College, has been drafted and signed by the Seattle SuperSonics, the Seattle Times said.

Don Richman, Seattle general manager, would neither confirm nor deny the report, but called a press conference for today.

With the exception of the San Diego Rockets, who signed Houston's All-American Elvin Hayes last week for an estimated $400,000, none of the other NBA clubs made known their first-round draft picks. The selections were made in a telephonic draft by Walter Kennedy, commissioner of the league.

There were unconfirmed reports that the Baltimore Bullets had chosen All-American Westley Unseld of Louisville and that the Boston Celtics had picked Don Chaney of Houston. The New York Knicks were understood to like Jo Jo White of Kansas.

Some of the leading collegiate stars likely to be drafted include All-American Larry Miller of North Carolina, Don May of Dayton, the Most Valuable Player in the recent National Invitation Tournament, Bill Hosket of Ohio State, Mike Lewis of Duke, Sam Williams of Iowa, and Tom Boerwinkle of Tennessee.

Among the small college players eligible are John Ray Goldfrey of Abilene Christian, Henry Logan of Western Carolina, Jerry McGreal of Illinois State, Larry Newbold of Long Island, Dallas Thornton of Kentucky Wesleyan and Otto Moore of Pan-American.

Meantime, it was announced the final divisional playoffs will start Friday night. In the Eastern Division it will be Boston at Philadelphia. In the West, it will be San Francisco at Los Angeles.

Cox' Triple Gives Rams 10-8 Victory

South Side Beaver won its second baseball game of the season by outlasting Burgettstown 10-8 on the losers' field yesterday.

The Rams won the game with a six-run seventh inning, the big blow being a bases-loaded triple by Dave Cox. Ron Peden also collected a three-bagger for the winners and Francis Nash got a double. Nash was the winning pitcher, coming in in relief of Tom Doak. Mahoney took the loss.

NHL Playoff Schedule Released

NEW YORK (AP) — A television problem solved, the National Hockey League has released its 1968 playoff schedule.

All four quarter-final series open Thursday night with Chicago at New York and Boston at Montreal in the East Division and St. Louis at Philadelphia and Minnesota at Los Angeles in the West.

Three of the series continue Saturday and the fourth—Chicago at New York—will pick up on Sunday with a national television audience looking on.

The TV-game had delayed a final decision on playoff dates. NHL teams have a home city blackout option on games shown nationally but the Columbia Broadcasting System, which airs the NHL Game of the Week, was hesitant at closing out the New York area and its high sales potential.

The Rangers, who had sold tickets for a closed circuit telecast of their two sold-out home the blackout, and Sunday's game will be shown locally. Tickets to the closed circuit telecast will be refunded.

After the first two games, all four series shift sites for the next two games and then rotate cities for the remaining games in the best-of-7 playoffs.

The next contest for the local skaters will be April 21 at the Starlite Arena in Atwater, Ohio.

Warriors Oust Hawks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Underdog San Francisco has become the fourth member of the National Basketball Association playoff cast with a 111-106 victory over the St. Louis Hawks.

"It's the greatest upset in NBA history," said a happy Bill Sharman Tuesday night after his Warriors disposed of the Hawks, four games to two, with fine outside shooting in every game of the Western Division semifinals.

"We truly didn't expect to be here," said Clyde Lee, who tipped in the Warriors' final basket after the Hawks had pulled to within 109-106.

The Warriors, plagued by injuries—the biggest to star Nate Thurmond—ended in third place in the regular season behind the Hawks and second-place Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, winner over Chicago in their semifinal series, entertains the Warriors Friday night in the first game of the Western Division final playoffs. The teams were 4-4 against each other during the season.

Boston and Philadelphia open their fight for the Eastern Division crown Friday night in Philadelphia.

Rudy LaRusso led the Warriors with 30 points, but it was Bobby Warlick who put the game away. He scored seven of his 20 points in the final four minutes. Jeff Mullins also collected 20.

San Frankisco led 57-47 at halftime and stretched it to 73-57 early in the third quarter. Len Wilkens hit a field goal that brought the Hawks to 98-96 in the fourth period, but that was the closest the came.

"It was the biggest disappointment of my life," sad Hawk Coach Richie Guerin, "after we played so well during the regular season."

He credited the Warriors' outside shooting as being the biggest factor, but Sharman said it was rebounding.

The Warriors were outrebounded 58-47 but in the two losses to the Hawks, were outrebounded by more than 20.

Lou Hudson led the Hawks with 35, followed by Wilkens with 29.

Potter Golfers Defeated

Ellwood City handed the East Liverpool golf team its first loss of the season after two wins by a 172-179 score at the East Liverpool Country Club yesterday.

John Ebersberger, the number three man for Carl (Rizzo) Mantz' visitors, was medalist with a 38, edging John Stepien, the number one man of Dave Thorne's forces, by one stroke. Stepien, the number one man of Dave Thorne's forces, by one stroke. Stepien's foe, Terry Gillespie, shot a 46, but all other Wolverines edged the locals. Dave Landolfi, the number two man, shot a 45 to a 47 by Bob Kinsey, Jerry Williams of the Potters fired a 42 against Ebersberger's 38 and at number four Dave Petrella of the winners had a 43 to Bill McHenry's 51. The match was the first of the year for Ellwood City.

East Liverpool travels to Steubenville today for a match.

Jackson State had 11 players drafted by the pros, while Houston, Mississippi and Miami, Fla., had nine each, Notre Dame eight, Colorado, Tennessee, USC and UTEP seven each and Colorado State, Michigan State, Tulsa, Memphis State and Weber State of Utah six each.

The Southern Conference, paced by Mississippi and Tennessee, was the top conference, with 38 draftees, but the Southwestern Athletic Conference, headed by Jackson St., was next with 31. The SWAC is a group of Negro schools in Louisiana, Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas, with Southern U., Grambling and Texas Southern being tapped heavily by the pros.

The Big 10 showed up third with 28, followed by Western Athletic Conference 27, the Athletic Association of Western Universities (the old Pacific Coast Conference) 25, the Missouri Valley and Big 8 21 each, the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association, a group of Negro schools in Maryland, Virginia and the Carolinas, 16, the Atlantic Coast Conference 14, the Southwest Conference 12, the Mid-American Conference 10, the Big Sky Conference eight, the Southern Conference and the West Coast Athletic Conference seven each, the Ohio Valley Conference and the Yankee Conference four each and the Ivy League three.

DESPITE THE disappointing finish of the Pittsburgh Penguins, out of the NHL Stanley Cup playoffs, there were some consolations in the first NHL season in Pittsburgh. Andy Bathgate won the western division scoring title with 20 goals and 39 assists. The team finished only six points (three wins) behind the first place Philadelphia Flyers in one of the tightest races in NHL history. The Penguins actually had as many wins as the two teams that finished immediately ahead of them, St. Louis and Minnesota, but had less ties and more losses.

THE CHOICE of Salem for the sportsmanship award of the Big 8 Basketball Conference was a shocker to local fans. In games involving East Liverpool, Salem, in my opinion, displayed the poorest sportsmanship by players and fans of any team in the league. As someone from East Liverpool commented after the Quakers got the award at the league banquet Monday night, they must have considered Rick Liber a good sport because he didn't kick Bruce Christian after Liber jumped on Christian. Referees did the voting for the trophy.

Buzz Ridl, new coach at Pitt, revealed at the banquet that he has not yet signed any basketball recruits for the Panthers, and that he was at a disadvantage because of his late start. He said he thinks Pitt has a good chance to get Jerome Flowers of Rankin, who also has signed a letter of intent at Maryland. Ridl thinks that his assistant, Fran Webster, will succeed him at Westminster, though no formal action has been taken.

The three East Liverpool players present, Earl Diddle, Mitchell Jones and Jerry Christian, all came in for a lot of attention from college scouts. Diddle has more than 40 college offers and Jones has several. Christian, of course, is only a junior.

Kemple's Single Wins In Eighth

Senior righthander Bernie Lovejoy fired a no-hitter for the East Liverpool Potters yesterday but almost lost the game in the seventh inning and had to pitch eight frames before East Liverpool subdued Western Beaver 3-1 at Western.

Lovejoy walked seven men, but his teammates played errorless ball. The Potters had taken the lead in the sixth on a double by Kim Kemple and a single by Bill Montgomery, but in the last of the seventh the Golden Beavers almost pulled it out. Three walks loaded the basses with one on, and a suicide squeeze brought in the tying run. Darryl Dye tried another bunt and was barely thrown out to end the inning.

In the eighth Mike McVay doubled, Tom Chambers was safe on an error and then stole second. Kemple delivered a single to plate both runners and Lovejoy retired the side in order in the last half of the inning.

The win was the second in two starts for Jim Potts' club, while the game was the opener for Western Beaver.

Warriors Oust Hawks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Underdog San Francisco has become the fourth member of the National Basketball Association playoff cast with a 111-106 victory over the St. Louis Hawks.

"It's the greatest upset in NBA history," said a happy Bill Sharman Tuesday night after his Warriors disposed of the Hawks, four games to two, with fine outside shooting in every game of the Western Division semifinals.

"We truly didn't expect to be here," said Clyde Lee, who tipped in the Warriors' final basket after the Hawks had pulled to within 109-106.

The Warriors, plagued by injuries—the biggest to star Nate Thurmond—ended in third place in the regular season behind the Hawks and second-place Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, winner over Chicago in their semifinal series, entertains the Warriors Friday night in the first game of the Western Division final playoffs. The teams were 4-4 against each other during the season.

Boston and Philadelphia open their fight for the Eastern Division crown Friday night in Philadelphia.

Rudy LaRusso led the Warriors with 30 points, but it was Bobby Warlick who put the game away. He scored seven of his 20 points in the final four minutes. Jeff Mullins also collected 20.

San Frankisco led 57-47 at halftime and stretched it to 73-57 early in the third quarter. Len Wilkens hit a field goal that brought the Hawks to 98-96 in the fourth period, but that was the closest the came.

"It was the biggest disappointment of my life," sad Hawk Coach Richie Guerin, "after we played so well during the regular season."

He credited the Warriors' outside shooting as being the biggest factor, but Sharman said it was rebounding.

The Warriors were outrebounded 58-47 but in the two losses to the Hawks, were outrebounded by more than 20.

Lou Hudson led the Hawks with 35, followed by Wilkens with 29.

San Francisco Wants Ron Williams In Draft

NEW YORK (AP) — Shaler Halimon, 3-foot-5 star of Utah State, has been drafted by the Philadelphia 76ers, champions of the National Basketball Association.

This was disclosed today by a spokesman for the 76ers in advance of the formal announcement from NBA headquarters in New York.

A spokesman for the NBA said the official first-round draft choices by all teams would be announced late today.

Franklin Mieuli, owner of the San Francisco Warriors, said he would draft Ron Williams, 6-3 West Virginia star "if he's available."

Bob Kauffman, 6-8 Little All-American from Guilford, N.C. College, has been drafted and signed by the Seattle SuperSonics, the Seattle Times said.

Don Richman, Seattle general manager, would neither confirm nor deny the report, but called a press conference for today.

With the exception of the San Diego Rockets, who signed Houston's All-American Elvin Hayes last week for an estimated $400,000, none of the other NBA clubs made known their first-round draft picks. The selections were made in a telephonic draft by Walter Kennedy, commissioner of the league.

There were unconfirmed reports that the Baltimore Bullets had chosen All-American Westley Unseld of Louisville and that the Boston Celtics had picked Don Chaney of Houston. The New York Knicks were understood to like Jo Jo White of Kansas.

Some of the leading collegiate stars likely to be drafted include All-American Larry Miller of North Carolina, Don May of Dayton, the Most Valuable Player in the recent National Invitation Tournament, Bill Hosket of Ohio State, Mike Lewis of Duke, Sam Williams of Iowa, and Tom Boerwinkle of Tennessee.

Among the small college players eligible are John Ray Goldfrey of Abilene Christian, Henry Logan of Western Carolina, Jerry McGreal of Illinois State, Larry Newbold of Long Island, Dallas Thornton of Kentucky Wesleyan and Otto Moore of Pan-American.

Meantime, it was announced the final divisional playoffs will start Friday night. In the Eastern Division it will be Boston at Philadelphia. In the West, it will be San Francisco at Los Angeles.

Cox' Triple Gives Rams 10-8 Victory

South Side Beaver won its second baseball game of the season by outlasting Burgettstown 10-8 on the losers' field yesterday.

The Rams won the game with a six-run seventh inning, the big blow being a bases-loaded triple by Dave Cox. Ron Peden also collected a three-bagger for the winners and Francis Nash got a double. Nash was the winning pitcher, coming in in relief of Tom Doak. Mahoney took the loss.

NHL Playoff Schedule Released

NEW YORK (AP) — A television problem solved, the National Hockey League has released its 1968 playoff schedule.

All four quarter-final series open Thursday night with Chicago at New York and Boston at Montreal in the East Division and St. Louis at Philadelphia and Minnesota at Los Angeles in the West.

Three of the series continue Saturday and the fourth—Chicago at New York—will pick up on Sunday with a national television audience looking on.

The TV-game had delayed a final decision on playoff dates. NHL teams have a home city blackout option on games shown nationally but the Columbia Broadcasting System, which airs the NHL Game of the Week, was hesitant at closing out the New York area and its high sales potential.

The Rangers, who had sold tickets for a closed circuit telecast of their two sold-out home the blackout, and Sunday's game will be shown locally. Tickets to the closed circuit telecast will be refunded.

After the first two games, all four series shift sites for the next two games and then rotate cities for the remaining games in the best-of-7 playoffs.

Indian Track League Opens On April 4

The Indian League track schedule will begin April 4, with Stanton facing Springfield and Southern meeting Hopedale.

Other teams in the league are Jefferson Union, Cadiz, Mingo and Brilliant. All meets are run at Stanton's all - weather track, with four dual meets taking place every Thursday.

Stanton is the defending champion, and Diehl feels that the Raiders will be contenders again, along with Cadiz, Jefferson Union and Mingo. Outstanding performers on the Stanton team are junior Dan Smith, who lost only once in the high hurdles last season; senior John Fecik and junior Dave Olesky in the dashes; the mile relay team of sophomores John Minor and Mike Patterson and seniors Cornell Maydak and Fecik, who did a 3:34.8 and got to the regionals last year; sophomore Jim McCourt, who high jumped 5-8 as a freshman, and senior Calgary Penn who is expected to get into the 4:30s in the mile and duel with Grady Wilkenson of Jefferson Union. Wilkenson suffered a knee injury during basketball season and may be hampered.

The schedule:

April 11—Southern vs. Brilliant Stanton vs. Cadiz
April 18—Southern vs. Springfield Stanton vs. Hopedale
April 25—Southern vs. Cadiz Stanton vs. Brilliant

Hand's NL Choices

Cards Picked To Repeat, Pirates Selected Fourth

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — St. Louis has the pitching, power and balance to win the National League pennant again but it won't be any 10½-game romp this time.

If there is any complacency in the camp of the defending world champions it didn't show in Florida where Orlando Cepeda and Lou Brock were bombing the fences. Manager Red Schoendienst's toughest problem was cutting his pitching staff.

Cincinnati looks tough if it can escape the injuries that ruined them last season. San Francisco should be close to the big money on an expected super year by Juan Marichal. Pittsburgh, the team that had everything but finished sixth, has added a pitching ace in Jim Bunning.

Leo Durocher's Chicago Cubs rate as contenders after making believers of the cynics last summer. Both the Los Angeles Dodgers and Atlanta Braves can make trouble if they play up to their potential. Philadelphia has to sweat it out with Richie Allen's damaged right hand. Houston appears to have enough to keep the New York Mets in last place.

Here's the way it looks from here:

1. St. Louis
2. Cincinnati
3. San Francisco
4. Pittsburgh
5. Chicago
6. Los Angeles
7. Atlanta
8. Philadelphia
9. Houston
10. New York

The Cards are up to here in solid pitching with Bob Gibson showing the way to a staff that includes Nelson Briles, Steve Carlton, and the others who did the job last season.

John Edwards will give Tim McCarver a chance to take a rest and Dick Schofield provides shortstop insurance behind Dal Maxvill.

A batting order that includes Brock, Cepeda, McCarver, Curt Flood, Mike Shannon, Roger Maris and Julian Javier packs enough punch to carry an ordinary staff and the Cards' staff is not ordinary.

Injuries, of course, can ruin any club. Any serious problems with Cepeda's knee or Flood's arm could bring them back to the pack.

The Reds might have made a good run at it last season if the inpuries hadn't chopped down the club in midseason. Dave Bristol has a group of versatile players who think they can win. A staff that includes Jim Maloney, Mel Queen, Milt Pappas and Garp Nolan (assuming he is sound) can make it close.

Much depends on a Marichal comeback and a return to form by Willie Mays if the Giants are to win. Mike McCormick must back up his fine year with another good season and the Hal Lanier-Ron Hunt combo must click in the middle of the infield. The Giants do have that home run power and good pitching.

The Pirates lead the league in hitting every year but the pitching lets them down. The addition of Bunning makes them a formidable factor. Any line-up that includes Roberto Clemente has to be a threat.

The Cubs went far with a kid pitching staff last season and count on the same group, plus a full season from Ken Holtzman, to take them all the way. Ron Santo, Ernie Banks and Billy Williams must carry the big load and Adolfo Phillips must continue to improve.

Zoilo Versalles, Tom Haller and Mudcat Grant are the Dodgers' hopes to pull off operation comeback. The pitching is solid with the addition of rookie Alan Foster but they still lack hitting. Atlanta has the power of Hank Aaron and Joe Torre but the pitching is questionable.

While the Phils wait on Allen's hand and sweat out a shortstop problem, they hardly figure as contenders. Houston's hopes to rise rest on better pitching. The Mets lack punch and need at least another Tom Seaver before they can start to progress under Gil Hodges.

Ohio Public Golf Slated At Massillon

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Invitations will go out shortly to 240 golfers for the Ohio Public Golfers Invitational set for the Elms Country Club in Massillon.

Joe Patton, secretary of the Ohio Public Golfers Association, confirmed the dates today as Aug. 5-9. He said a recent meeting of the board of directors also indicated that Cleveland will get the 1969 tourney and Springfield has put in a bid for the 1970 event.

A committee was formed to work on a separate seniors tournament for public golfers to be held in September or October of this year, probably at Springfield. The event will be for golfers 50 and over.

Ed Capri of Canton is the association's new president. Other officers include Fritz Howell, Columbus; Jack Thornton, Springfield; Henry Meyers, Cleveland; Paul Tulga, Columbus; Henry Sawicki, Toledo; Carl Kushin, Mansfield, all vice presidents; E. O. Gifford, Columbus, treasurer, and Patton, of Steubenville, re-elected secretary.

Indian Track League Opens On April 4

The Indian League track schedule will begin April 4, with Stanton facing Springfield and Southern meeting Hopedale.

Other teams in the league are Jefferson Union, Cadiz, Mingo and Brilliant. All meets are run at Stanton's all - weather track, with four dual meets taking place every Thursday.

Harry Diehl is the head coach at Stanton, with Dave Smith his assistant. Jerry Winstead is the head track coach at Southern.

Stanton is the defending champion, and Diehl feels that the Raiders will be contenders again, along with Cadiz, Jefferson Union and Mingo. Outstanding performers on the Stanton team are junior Dan Smith, who lost only once in the high hurdles last season; senior John Fecik and junior Dave Olesky in the dashes; the mile relay team of sophomores John Minor and Mike Patterson and seniors Cornell Maydak and Fecik, who did a 3:34.8 and got to the regionals last year; sophomore Jim McCourt, who high jumped 5-8 as a freshman, and senior Calgary Penn who is expected to get into the 4:30s in the mile and duel with Grady Wilkenson of Jefferson Union. Wilkenson suffered a knee injury during basketball season and may be hampered.

The schedule:

April 4—Southern vs. Hopedale
Stanton vs. Springfield
April 11—Southern vs. Brilliant
Stanton vs. Cadiz
April 18—Southern vs. Springfield Stanton vs. Hopedale
April 25—Southern vs. Cadiz

Cards Picked To Repeat, Pirates Selected Fourth

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — St. Louis has the pitching, power and balance to win the National League pennant again but it won't be any 10½-game romp this time.

If there is any complacency in the camp of the defending world champions it didn't show in Florida where Orlando Cepeda and Lou Brock were bombing the fences. Manager Red Schoendienst's toughest problem was cutting his pitching staff.

Cincinnati looks tough if it can escape the injuries that ruined them last season. San Francisco should be close to the big money on an expected super year by Juan Marichal. Pittsburgh, the team that had everything but finished sixth, has added a pitching ace in Jim Bunning.

Leo Durocher's Chicago Cubs rate as contenders after making believers of the cynics last summer. Both the Los Angeles Dodgers and Atlanta Braves can make trouble if they play up to their potential. Philadelphia has to sweat it out with Richie Allen's damaged right hand. Houston appears to have enough to keep the New York Mets in last place.

Here's the way it looks from here:

1. St. Louis
2. Cincinnati
3. San Francisco
4. Pittsburgh
5. Chicago
6. Los Angeles
7. Atlanta
8. Philadelphia
9. Houston
10. New York

The Cards are up to here in solid pitching with Bob Gibson showing the way to a staff that includes Nelson Briles, Steve Carlton, and the others who did the job last season.

John Edwards will give Tim McCarver a chance to take a rest and Dick Schofield provides shortstop insurance behind Dal Maxvill.

A batting order that includes Brock, Cepeda, McCarver, Curt Flood, Mike Shannon, Roger Maris and Julian Javier packs enough punch to carry an ordinary staff and the Cards' staff is not ordinary.

Injuries, of course, can ruin any club. Any serious problems with Cepeda's knee or Flood's arm could bring them back to the pack.

The Reds might have made a good run at it last season if the inpuries hadn't chopped down the club in midseason. Dave Bristol has a group of versatile players who think they can win. A staff that includes Jim Maloney, Mel Queen, Milt Pappas and Garp Nolan (assuming he is sound) can make it close.

Much depends on a Marichal comeback and a return to form by Willie Mays if the Giants are to win. Mike McCormick must back up his fine year with another good season and the Hal Lanier-Ron Hunt combo must click in the middle of the infield. The Giants do have that home run power and good pitching.

The Pirates lead the league in hitting every year but the pitching lets them down. The addition of Bunning makes them a formidable factor. Any line-up that includes Roberto Clemente has to be a threat.

The Cubs went far with a kid pitching staff last season and count on the same group, plus a full season from Ken Holtzman, to take them all the way. Ron Santo, Ernie Banks and Billy Williams must carry the big load and Adolfo Phillips must continue to improve.

Zoilo Versalles, Tom Haller and Mudcat Grant are the Dodgers' hopes to pull off operation comeback. The pitching is solid with the addition of rookie Alan Foster but they still lack hitting. Atlanta has the power of Hank Aaron and Joe Torre but the pitching is questionable.

While the Phils wait on Allen's hand and sweat out a shortstop problem, they hardly figure as contenders. Houston's hopes to rise rest on better pitching. The Mets lack punch and need at least another Tom Seaver before they can start to progress under Gil Hodges.

Ohio Public Golf Slated At Massillon

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Invitations will go out shortly to 240 golfers for the Ohio Public Golfers Invitational set for the Elms Country Club in Massillon.

Joe Patton, secretary of the Ohio Public Golfers Association, confirmed the dates today as Aug. 5-9. He said a recent meeting of the board of directors also indicated that Cleveland will get the 1969 tourney and Springfield has put in a bid for the 1970 event.

A committee was formed to work on a separate seniors tournament for public golfers to be held in September or October of this year, probably at Springfield. The event will be for golfers 50 and over.

Ed Capri of Canton is the association's new president. Other officers include Fritz Howell, Columbus; Jack Thornton, Springfield; Henry Meyers, Cleveland; Paul Tulga, Columbus; Henry Sawicki, Toledo; Carl Kushin, Mansfield, all vice presidents; E. O. Gifford, Columbus, treasurer, and Patton, of Steubenville, re-elected secretary.

Beaver Local Spring Sports Starting Tomorrow

Baseball Squad Has 11 Veterans

"I look for a lot of 10-9 games" says Beaver Local baseball coach Lloyd Stockdale.

The Beavers have a 29-game schedule, starting tomorrow at Struthers, and Stockdale doesn't think he has the pitching depth to keep the opposition at bay during all these contests. He does think that he will have plenty of hitting to give the opposing hurlers a rough time, however.

The Beavers who won the Buckeye Border Conference the past two years have 11 lettermen returning so Stockdale has good cause for optimism. The chief loss from last year's team was Jeff Hall, the best pitcher and shortstop. Stockdale sees his main challenge to another conference title coming from Carrollton, Jefferson Union and Toronto.

Jim Burcham is a three-year letterman while other monogram winners are juniors Bob Flint, Lou Brown, Gary Klembara and Dan Myers, seniors Andy Mellon, Rex Campbell, Mike Piatt, Dennis Klembara and Joel Petkovich and sophomore Mike Smith. Piatt, a righthander, and Myers, a lefthander, are expected to be the top pitchers. Petkovich, who has been hampered by a wrist injury, Allen Waite, and Ralph Wolford are other hurlers.

Myers will play first base when he doesn't pitch and sophomore Mike Pozenell will play the bag when Myers is on the mound. Gary Klembara at second, Waite at short and Petkovich at third is a possible starting infield combination, with Wayne Stewart, Smith and Flint available in the inner defense.

Mellon, Brown, Burcham and Dennis Klembara are outfielders, with Klembara available to share the catching duties with Campbell. Stockdale notes that both boys are fine catchers and he evaluates his overall defense as good.

Track coach Larry Knight has 50 boys out, with eight lettermen. The veterans are seniors Greg Shultz, Jim Nuzum and Sam Ferguson, juniors Richard Stoll, Bob Berresford and Keith Steiner and sophomore John Lyons.

Fred Brickner will run the 100, with Nuzum and Jim Bowersock running the 220 and 440. Ferguson, Brickner and Ron Downard will hurdle. Lyons is the top miler, with Tom Aeschbacher and Dave Bentz backing him. In the field events Shultz and Tom Wolfe will put the shot, while Jack Johnston will long jump and Mellon high jump. Knight says he has no pole vaulter as yet.

The season starts tomorrow when West Branch invades. The complete schedule:

Congiliaro's Eyesight Still Not Up To Par

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Baltimore Orioles will be without another of their 1966 pennant heroes when the 1968 baseball season begins Monday and last year's champion Boston Red Sox are not doing much better.

The Red Sox, already without pitching injured ace Jim Lonborg for at least the first month of the season, sent slugging Tony Conigliaro flying to Boston Tuesday to undergo further eye examinations.

"There's no doubt that I have a problem," the 23-year-old outfielder was quoted by teammate Carl Yastrzemski in a story written for the Boston Evening Globe. "I have to admit my eyes are nowhere near perfect."

Conigliaro admitted he has difficulty focusing on pitches in daylight. He suffered blurred vision when he was hit near the left eye by a pitch last August, and missed the rest of the 1967 season and the World Series. He had 20 homers, 67 runs batted in and a .287 batting average at the time.

This spring, he is hitting only .167 and has struck out frequently.

Baltimore's worries are not as acute as the pitching rich Orioles sent Wally Bunker to join Jim Palmer in the minor leagues to work out pitching problems.

Bunker, also 23, won 19 games in 1966 and 10 games and a World Series game in 1966 before tendonitis limited him to a 3-7 record last year.

Palmer, another Series winner who was 15-10 that year, also has been bothered by arm trouble and was sent down earlier this spring, and Stu Miller, the star of the bullpen, was sold Monday.

Other pitchers, like Bo Belinsky, had a good day.

Belinsky got his wish from the Houston Astros and was sold to Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League where he hopes to pitch and open a dude ranch.

On the mound, Woody Fryman, Mike McCormick, Earl Wilson, Milt Pappas and Jerry Stephenson sparkled.

Fryman, acquired by Philadelphia from Pittsburgh in the Jim Bunning trade last winter, turned in a three-hitter for seven innings and struck out 11 as the Phillies blanked Minnesota 1-0 on Tony Taylor's sixth-inning homer.

McCormick, who won 22 games, the Cy Houng Award and the comeback award in the National League in 1967, stopped Cleveland without a run for six innings in San Francisco's 6-1 triumph over the Indians.

Wilson, another 22-game winner last season, gave up six hits and one run in seven innings, pitching Detroit over the Chicago White Sox 5-1.

Cincinnati got a one-hitter for five innings from Pappas and the Reds went on to a 4-2 decision over Houston.

Ron Hansen hammered a two-out ninth inning homer to break a tie and hand Washington a 5-4 victory over Boston, despite Stephensen's efforts. Stephenson stopped the Senators on two hits and one unearned run for seven innings before Washington scored four runs in the last two innings against relievers.

Jim Hardin, John O'Donoghue and Pete Richert stopped the New York Yankees on five hits in Baltimore's 2-1 12-inning triumph on Elrod Hendricks' sacrifice fly.

Bobby Tolan stole home with the winning run off Don Shaw in the eighth inning to give St. Louis a 3-2 victory over the New York Mets.

Don Drysdale was touched for four runs in seven innings, but Los Angeles bombed Ken Holtzman and Rich Nye for a 5-4 decision over the Chicago Cubs.

Three hits, two errors and a sacrifice fly got Pittsburgh three runs and a 3-2 victory over Oakland.

Pascual In Familiar Surroundings

WASHINGTON (AP) — After eight years Camilo Pascual returns Monday to pitch baseball's annual opener for Washington, facing former teammates who wore Senator uniforms in his last inaugural victory.

Pascual will oppose the Minnesota Twins, long the home team in the traditional Presidential opener before leaving Washington and changing names at the end of the 1960 season.

The 34-year-old Cuban righthander, who returned to Washington a year ago in a trade with the Twins, fanned 15 in the 10-1 decision over Boston in 1960. He broke a club strikeout record set half a century earlier by the immortal Walter Johnson.

Lady Potters To Hold Sales

Future fund - raising plans were discussed by the Lady Potter Boosters Club at its YMCA.

The club will purchase additional blazers for use by the football team. Plans were made to visit the gas company for a cooking demonstration, but the date has not yet been set.

The next meeting will be at 8 p.m. May 6 at the home of Mrs. Carl Anderson on Allison St.

Spruce Lake Opens Saturday Morning

Spruce Lake at Rogers will open for the saason April 6.

Pleasant Hills Golf League To Meet

All those interested in playing in the league are asked to attend this meeting.

In spring, youngsters knuckle down to a game of marbles—just as Stone Age kids did thousands of years ago.

Midland Tops Beaver Local In Golf 3-2

The Midland golf team edged Beaver Local 3-2 at the East Liverpool Country Club yesterday.

Larry Bender's squad is now 3-1, while the match was the opener for Pete Metrovich's Beavers. Playing match play under Pennsylvania rules Ed Brozic of the Leopards edged Rick Metz 2 and 1 in the number one position. Bob Needs of the winners topped John Weber 3 and 1 at number two, but Bob Smith of the Beavers whipped Gary Granito 5 and 4 at number three. Jim D'Angelo at number four scored the clincher for Midland with a 3 and 1 win over Frank Galcoti. Craig of the Beavers won 2 and 1 over Larry Tomec in the number five slot.

Jim Ralston Records KO In 17 Seconds

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Light-heavyweight Jimmy Ralston scored one of the quickest knockouts in modern boxing history Tuesday night in floring Herman "scatterhawk" Dixon of Miami in 17 seconds.

Ralston, of Buffalo, was a knockout victim of Dixon in two rounds in Miami two years ago.

Dixon opened the first round in Memorial Auditorium with a short left lead then moved with his right. Ralston shot a left hook over Dixon's arm and crashed a solid punch on Dixon's jaw for the knockout.

Dixon was on the canvas for five minutes but was fully recovered when he reached the dressing room. "I still don't know what happened," he said. "I don't even know what he hit me with."

The quickest modern era knockout listed in the 1968 Ring Record Book was at Maestag, Wales, Sept. 2, 1957 when Teddy Barker of England stopped Bob Roberts of Nigeria in exactly 10 seconds. In a bare knuckle fight at Leavenworth, Kan., on Jan. 4, 1868, Tom Dow beat Ned Kiely in seven seconds.

NCAA May Continue Track Feud

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association's silence in advance of today's scheduled announcement of its response to a Senate-supported proposal of peace with the Amateur Athletic Union has spread speculation the track war may continue.

The NCAA and its protege the U.S. Track and Field Federation, called a news conference for late today without delivering any advance reply to Senate sponsors of the suggested track settlement.

"They very carefully didn't tell us," one source said Tuesday.

The long and bitter track feud has given birth to fears the rivalry could peril tryouts for the U.S. Olympic team.

The Senate is virtually certain to be asked to step in and write a settlement into law if the NCAA spurns the compromise shaped by an arbitration panel two months ago.

The AAU already has accepted the recommendations. So has the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The NCAA president, Prof. Marcus L. Plant of the University of Michigan, and the USTFF head, the Rev. Wilfred H. Crowley of Los Altos, Calif., both criticized the panel's report when it was issued Feb. 1.

They were to conduct today's news conference.

The arbitration board, created by the Senate, said the AAU should sanction all international and open domestic track meets while the NCAA could conduct meets limited to fulltime students.

The board said the USTFF could sponsor open domestic meets if they were sanctioned by the AAU.

Olympic Trials Start Tomorrow

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP — A 45-man committee begins evaluation sessions, some at midnight, Thursday of 86 players trying out for the 12-man U.S. Olympic basketball team.

"We know something of their reputation," said Ben Carnevale of New York University, chairman of the committee. "We ask statistical sheets on each player and then we'll have meetings after each day's games and select the best players we feel will fit in to win the Olympics."

The88 players represent eight teams which will play three games each in the U.S. Olympic basketball trials tournament, which will be held in University of New Mexico's 14,831-seat areana. Play opens at 4 p.m., EST, Thursday with four games set each day through Saturday.

Announcement of the final U.S. Olympic team and six alternates is expected Sunday. The committee includes 23 Amateur Athletic Union officials. Other members come from the NCAA, Junior colleges, armed forces, high schools and other amateur organizations.

Beaver Local Spring Sports Starting Tomorrow

Baseball Squad Has 11 Veterans

"I look for a lot of 10-9 games" says Beaver Local baseball coach Lloyd Stockdale.

The Beavers have a 29-game schedule, starting tomorrow at Struthers, and Stockdale doesn't think he has the pitching depth to keep the opposition at bay during all these contests. He does think that he will have plenty of hitting to give the opposing hurlers a rough time, however.

The Beavers who won the Buckeye Border Conference the past two years have 11 lettermen returning so Stockdale has good cause for optimism. The chief loss from last year's team was Jeff Hall, the best pitcher and shortstop. Stockdale sees his main challenge to another conference title coming from Carrollton, Jefferson Union and Toronto.

Jim Burcham is a three-year letterman while other monogram winners are juniors Bob Flint, Lou Brown, Gary Klembara and Dan Myers, seniors Andy Mellon, Rex Campbell, Mike Piatt, Dennis Klembara and Joel Petkovich and sophomore Mike Smith. Piatt, a righthander, and Myers, a lefthander, are expected to be the top pitchers. Petkovich, who has been hampered by a wrist injury, Allen Waite, and Ralph Wolford are other hurlers.

Myers will play first base when he doesn't pitch and sophomore Mike Pozenell will play the bag when Myers is on the mound. Gary Klembara at second, Waite at short and Petkovich at third is a possible starting infield combination, with Wayne Stewart, Smith and Flint available in the inner defense.

Mellon, Brown, Burcham and Dennis Klembara are outfielders, with Klembara available to share the catching duties with Campbell. Stockdale notes that both boys are fine catchers and he evaluates his overall defense as good.

Track coach Larry Knight has 50 boys out, with eight lettermen. The veterans are seniors Greg Shultz, Jim Nuzum and Sam Ferguson, juniors Richard Stoll, Bob Berresford and Keith Steiner and sophomore John Lyons.

Fred Brickner will run the 100, with Nuzum and Jim Bowersock running the 220 and 440. Ferguson, Brickner and Ron Downard will hurdle. Lyons is the top miler, with Tom Aeschbacher and Dave Bentz backing him. In the field events Shultz and Tom Wolfe will put the shot, while Jack Johnston will long jump and Mellon high jump. Knight says he has no pole vaulter as yet.

Congiliaro's Eyesight Still Not Up To Par

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Baltimore Orioles will be without another of their 1966 pennant heroes when the 1968 baseball season begins Monday and last year's champion Boston Red Sox are not doing much better.

The Red Sox, already without pitching injured ace Jim Lonborg for at least the first month of the season, sent slugging Tony Conigliaro flying to Boston Tuesday to undergo further eye examinations.

"There's no doubt that I have a problem," the 23-year-old outfielder was quoted by teammate Carl Yastrzemski in a story written for the Boston Evening Globe. "I have to admit my eyes are nowhere near perfect."

Conigliaro admitted he has difficulty focusing on pitches in daylight. He suffered blurred vision when he was hit near the left eye by a pitch last August, and missed the rest of the 1967 season and the World Series. He had 20 homers, 67 runs batted in and a .287 batting average at the time.

This spring, he is hitting only .167 and has struck out frequently.

Baltimore's worries are not as acute as the pitching rich Orioles sent Wally Bunker to join Jim Palmer in the minor leagues to work out pitching problems.

Bunker, also 23, won 19 games in 1964 and 10 games and a World Series game in 1966 before tendonitis limited him to a 3-7 record last year.

Palmer, another Series winner who was 15-10 that year, also has been bothered by arm trouble and was sent down earlier this spring, and Stu Miller, the star of the bullpen, was sold Monday.

Other pitchers, like Bo Belinsky, had a good day.

Belinsky got his wish from the Houston Astros and was sold to Hawaii of the Pacific Coast League where he hopes to pitch and open a dude ranch.

On the mound, Woody Fryman, Mike McCormick, Earl Wilson, Milt Pappas and Jerry Stephenson sparkled.

Fryman, acquired by Philadelphia from Pittsburgh in the Jim Bunning trade last winter, turned in a three-hitter for seven innings and struck out 11 as the Phillies blanked Minnesota 1-0 on Tony Taylor's sixth-inning homer.

McCormick, who won 22 games, the Cy Houng Award and the comeback award in the National League in 1967, stopped Cleveland without a run for six innings in San Francisco's 6-1 triumph over the Indians.

Wilson, another 22-game winner last season, gave up six hits and one run in seven innings, pitching Detroit over the Chicago White Sox 5-1.

Cincinnati got a one-hitter for five innings from Pappas and the Reds went on to a 4-2 decision over Houston.

Ron Hansen hammered a two-out ninth inning homer to break a tie and hand Washington a 5-4 victory over Boston, despite Stephensen's efforts. Stephenson stopped the Senators on two hits and one unearned run for seven innings before Washington scored four runs in the last two innings against relievers.

Jim Hardin, John O'Donoghue and Pete Richert stopped the New York Yankees on five hits in Baltimore's 2-1 12-inning triumph on Elrod Hendricks' sacrifice fly.

Bobby Tolan stole home with the winning run off Don Shaw in the eighth inning to give St. Louis a 3-2 victory over the New York Mets.

Don Drysdale was touched for four runs in seven innings, but Los Angeles bombed Ken Holtzman and Rich Nye for a 5-4 decision over the Chicago Cubs.

Three hits, two errors and a sacrifice fly got Pittsburgh three runs and a 3-2 victory over Oakland.

Pascual In Familiar Surroundings

WASHINGTON (AP) — After eight years Camilo Pascual returns Monday to pitch baseball's annual opener for Washington, facing former teammates who wore Senator uniforms in his last inaugural victory.

Pascual will oppose the Minnesota Twins, long the home team in the traditional Presidential opener before leaving Washington and changing names at the end of the 1960 season.

The 34-year-old Cuban righthander, who returned to Washington a year ago in a trade with the Twins, fanned 15 in the 10-1 decision over Boston in 1960. He broke a club strikeout record set half a century earlier by the immortal Walter Johnson.

The next meeting will be at 8 p.m. May 6 at the home of Mrs. Carl Anderson on Allison St.

Spruce Lake Opens Saturday Morning

Midland Tops Beaver Local In Golf 3-2

The Midland golf team edged Beaver Local 3-2 at the East Liverpool Country Club yesterday.

Larry Bender's squad is now 3-1, while the match was the opener for Pete Metrovich's Beavers. Playing match play under Pennsylvania rules Ed Brozic of the Leopards edged Rick Metz 2 and 1 in the number one position. Bob Needs of the winners topped John Weber 3 and 1 at number two, but Bob Smith of the Beavers whipped Gary Granito 5 and 4 at number three. Jim D'Angelo at number four scored the clincher for Midland with a 3 and 1 win over Frank Galcoti. Craig of the Beavers won 2 and 1 over Larry Tomec in the number five slot.

Jim Ralston Records KO In 17 Seconds

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Light-heavyweight Jimmy Ralston scored one of the quickest knockouts in modern boxing history Tuesday night in floring Herman "scatterhawk" Dixon of Miami in 17 seconds.

Ralston, of Buffalo, was a knockout victim of Dixon in two rounds in Miami two years ago.

Dixon opened the first round in Memorial Auditorium with a short left lead then moved with his right. Ralston shot a left hook over Dixon's arm and crashed a solid punch on Dixon's jaw for the knockout.

Dixon was on the canvas for five minutes but was fully recovered when he reached the dressing room. "I still don't know what happened," he said. "I don't even know what he hit me with."

The quickest modern era knockout listed in the 1968 Ring Record Book was at Maestag, Wales, Sept. 2, 1957 when Teddy Barker of England stopped Bob Roberts of Nigeria in exactly 10 seconds. In a bare knuckle fight at Leavenworth, Kan., on Jan. 4, 1868, Tom Dow beat Ned Kiely in seven seconds.

NCAA May Continue Track Feud

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association's silence in advance of today's scheduled announcement of its response to a Senate-supported proposal of peace with the Amateur Athletic Union has spread speculation the track war may continue.

The NCAA and its protege the U.S. Track and Field Federation, called a news conference for late today without delivering any advance reply to Senate sponsors of the suggested track settlement.

"They very carefully didn't tell us," one source said Tuesday.

The long and bitter track feud has given birth to fears the rivalry could peril tryouts for the U.S. Olympic team.

The Senate is virtually certain to be asked to step in and write a settlement into law if the NCAA spurns the compromise shaped by an arbitration panel two months ago.

The AAU already has accepted the recommendations. So has the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The NCAA president, Prof. Marcus L. Plant of the University of Michigan, and the USTFF head, the Rev. Wilfred H. Crowley of Los Altos, Calif., both criticized the panel's report when it was issued Feb. 1.

They were to conduct today's news conference.

The arbitration board, created by the Senate, said the AAU should sanction all international and open domestic track meets while the NCAA could conduct meets limited to fulltime students.

The board said the USTFF could sponsor open domestic meets if they were sanctioned by the AAU.

Olympic Trials Start Tomorrow

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP — A 45-man committee begins evaluation sessions, some at midnight, Thursday of 86 players trying out for the 12-man U.S. Olympic basketball team.

"We know something of their reputation," said Ben Carnevale of New York University, chairman of the committee. "We ask statistical sheets on each player and then we'll have meetings after each day's games and select the best players we feel will fit in to win the Olympics."

The88 players represent eight teams which will play three games each in the U.S. Olympic basketball trials tournament, which will be held in University of New Mexico's 14,831-seat areana. Play opens at 4 p.m., EST, Thursday with four games set each day through Saturday.

Announcement of the final U.S. Olympic team and six alternates is expected Sunday. The committee includes 23 Amateur Athletic Union officials. Other members come from the NCAA, Junior colleges, armed forces, high schools and other amateur organizations.

Teacher Pay Bill Trimmed $18 Million

HARRISBURG (AP) — A much-disputed, much-amended teachers' pay bill was back in the House today, some $18 million lighter than when it left there three weeks ago.

Senate Republicans, prodded by the threat of a gubernatorial veto, beat back Democratic efforts to restore funds trimmed from the bill and passed the $35 million measure Tuesday.

Gov. Shafer had met with the GOP caucus earlier in the day to deliver a warning that he would veto any legislation sent to his desk carrying a higher price tag.

The House, which had passed a $53 million salary bill three weeks ago, was expected to send the measure to a joint committee in hope that a compromise could be negotiated.

Meanwhile, Joseph Standa of Johnstown, president of the 80,000-member Pennsylvania State Education Association (PSEA), expressed "bitter disappointment" at the Senate action.

"We defer any further comment until the House receives the bill" today, Standa said, declining to speculate on what future action the PSEA might take.

ANN LANDERS

Post Office Gets A Hand

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm fed up with listening to people knock "the lousy Post Office." It's time people realized that a great deal of the slow service and inefficiency is caused by their own stupidity or carelessness.

If these complainers could peek into the back rooms and see to what unbelievable lengths postal employes go to salvage items that belong in the garbage, they would be ashamed.

I work in the San Francisco Post Office and not a day passes that I don't see envelopes with handwriting which is 100 per cent illegible, letters with no addresses, envelopes with no contents, contents with no envelopes, letters with the right city and the wrong state or the right state and the wrong city — such as Sioux Falls, Iowa, or Sioux City, South Dakota.

Of course there is some inefficiency in the Post Office. We have employes who are incompetent, lazy and careless. But so does General Motors and General Electric and General Foods, because that's the way some people are.

If the public wants better postal service, they can improve it by using their heads. Thanks for letting me have my say. I feel better already. — ANONYMOUS.

Dear Anon: You're telling ME about the things people put in the mail? I have received letters written on paper bags, toilet tissue, garbage liners, paper towels . . . just name it and I've seen it.

Thanks for your letter, friend. I hope it does some good.

All's Fair

Dear Ann: I'm a college student with a million pressures. I feel as if the world is closing in on me. Please help me hang on to my sanity.

I was going steady with Freddy and we were very much in love — or at least I was. When we decided to go to different colleges we agreed to call off the steady arrangement and date others. It was to be a "testing period."

My closest girl friend seized our experiment as an opportunity to make a play for Freddy. I'm sorry to say she succeeded.

I still value her friendship but my faith in her is shattered. At present I feel betrayed, rejected, depressed and friendless. I still find it hard to believe she would do such a rotten thing to me.

I realize this triangle thing is as old as the hills and probably not worth space in your column, but I need some words of wisdom to keep from cracking up. — MISS CALCULATED.

Dear Miss: Don't blame the girl. Freddy was ready. If it hadn't been your girl friend it would have been someone else.

By your own admission, you and the young man had agreed to call off the steady arrangement. This meant he was free to date others — and so were you. Pick up the pieces and build something.

Sweet Drinker

Dear Ann: I'm going with a very attractive girl. She has a lot on the ball but she changed jobs five times in the last year, which has made me wonder about her stability.

After three months of steady dating I've decided she is a wonderful person, but slightly alcoholic. Do you think marriage would help her? — DANNY BOY.

Dear Boy: There is no such thing as "slightly alcoholic" — it's like being "slightly pregnant." Don't count on marriage to "help" her. A girl who won't stay off the sauce for her sweetheart is less likely to do so for her husband. Suggest A.A.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Coble and William Riddle, chaplain, were named co-chairmen of Memorial Day events, including decoration of 180 graves of Midland area veterans.

Wayne M. Hoyt, sergeant-at-arms, is chairman of arrangements for a military funeral for a deceased member, Frank W. Domladovac of Ohioville, Wednesday at 2 p. m. Services will be in the Cannon Funeral Home.

Truman E. Rodfong, Riddle and Crano were named to a committee to investigate various members who have been nominated for life memberships. They will report during the next meeting April 15 at 8 p. m. The committee was appointed at an executive board meeting preceeding the regular meeting. Commander Robert Dick presided.

Contribution To Fund-Raising Dinner

FBI Investigates Charge Of Democratic Pressure

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI has opened a criminal investigation into an accusation that the head of the Maritime Administration summoned 79 of his top-salary employes to a business-hours meeting and pressured them to contribute to the Democratic party.

The charge was made last week to The Associated Press by a high-level employe of the agency who said Acting Administrator James W. Gulick held the meeting March 21 in a conference room near his office in the General Accounting Office building.

At the meeting, the employe said, Gulick told those present that each would have to decide for himself how to respond to invitations to a $250-a-plate Democratic fund-raising dinner, then added:

"If you want to make sure that you have a nice, clean file —and you can be sure that a file is kept somewhere—you know what to do."

Such action would violate election law prohibiting a federal employe from soliciting political contributions from another federal employe on federal property, a Justice Department official told The Associated Press on Tuesday.

The FBI moved into the case Monday at the request of the Justice Department's Criminal Division, the official said. He declined to speculate on the length or outcome of the probe.

Gulick has acknowledged calling the meeting on March 21. He also said a second meeting was called the next day because "I heard of the possibility of a misunderstanding." He denied however, that he put any pressure on his employes to contribute to the dinner, scheduled for this Thursday.

"There was no pressure, no solicitation, and whatever they wanted to do was in accordanee with their own circumstances and their own positions," Gulick said.

The source within the agency said, "The tone of Gulick's remarks was that I'm a nice guy and I'm not going to do anything to you (if you don't contribute) but . . ."

"I've seen pressure before but this was the worst I've ever run into," he added.

Each of the 79 employes called to the meeting had a pay-grade scale of GS-15, earning $18,400 and up. Each had received, either through the mail or from a superior, an invitation to the dinner.

The agency employe quoted Gulick as telling the standing-room-only crowd in the conference room:

"I'm going to lay in on the line. I'm going to give it to you as it was given to me . . .

"C. R. Smith (the new secretary of commerce) feels that $250 is too much. He thinks that perhaps $50 would be about right. Maybe some of you would like to go in together. You know it doesn't make any difference whether you go to the dinner.

"This thing comes up every four years. You are aware of it. All of you have received invitations to the congressional dinner on April 4. Now there's not going to be any arm twisting. I have to make a decision myself.

"It's a personal decision. Each of you will have to decide how important this is to you. This has been going on a long time and, incidentally, it happened under Republicans too.

"If you want to make sure that you have a nice clean file —and you can be sure that a file is kept somewhere—you know what to do."

Pennsylvania's Democrats Show 18,600 Vote Margin

HARRISBURG (AP) — It apparently has taken Pennsylvania Democrats less than a year to regain the voter registration advantage from the opposition Republicans.

Preliminary figures from all 67 counties indicate the Democrats will carry an 18,600-vote margin into the April 23 primary election, a reversal of some 28,000 voters since last November when the GOP held a 9,500 margin.

Figures from 61 of the 67 counties were available Tuesday at the State Elections Bureau. The others were gathered by contacting the missing counties.

The unofficial tabulation, which is subject to official certification by the Election Bureau reads: Democrats — 2,556,992, Republicans—2,538,315.

Last November, the registrations of the two major parties were: Republicans — 2,628,230, Democrats—2,618,723.

Thus, in a period of 11 months, the Democratic Party apparently has reversed a situation that began in the May primary a year go when the GOP, for the first time in seven years, outregistered the opposition by 7,500.

Figures on Constitutional Party, independent or non-partisan and minor party registrations were available from everywhere but Beaver County Tuesday.

Those incomplete tallies were: Constitutional—3,895 (up 1,147 from last November); non-partisan or independent — 66,375 (down 2,577); and minor parties —4,025 (down 297).

That both major parties suffered overall declines in their totals from last November was in keeping with the Pennsylvania tradition of lower registrations in the primaries.

what kind of coffeemaker do you use?

It really doesn't matter.

Any coffeemaker can give you a good cup of coffee,
providing you use a fine fresh coffee
that is ground exactly right for your coffeemaker.

We've always known that the correct grind
is important to coffee flavor.
That's why, years ago, we developed Custom-Grinding.
That's why we don't have just one or two grinds
but seven different grinds...
to fit any coffeemaker,
including electric percolators, of course,
(Ask for medium-fine grind for electrics).

Custom-Grinding means a little extra work for us
and a little extra time for you.
(It takes 15 seconds to grind a pound).
But what a difference in flavor
those few seconds make.

You know, there's only one reason we insist
on selling custom-ground bean coffees...

what kind of coffeemaker do you use?

It really doesn't matter.

Any coffeemaker can give you a good cup of coffee,
providing you use a fine fresh coffee
that is ground exactly right for your coffeemaker.

We've always known that the correct grind
is important to coffee flavor.
That's why, years ago, we developed Custom-Grinding.
That's why we don't have just one or two grinds
but seven different grinds...
to fit any coffeemaker,
including electric percolators, of course,
(Ask for medium-fine grind for electrics).

Custom-Grinding means a little extra work for us
and a little extra time for you.
(It takes 15 seconds to grind a pound).
But what a difference in flavor
those few seconds make.

You know, there's only one reason we insist
on selling custom-ground bean coffees...
WE CARE.

The DOCTOR Says

By DR. W. G. BRANDSTADT

Q—What causes spastic colitis? Does it lead to a peptic ulcer? Is there any connection between spastic and mucous colitis? What is the best treatment? Is rest necessary?

Dr. Brandstadt

A—In most victims the cause is a high-strung nervous system with emotional instability. Although high-strung persons often develop a peptic ulcer, the two diseases are not usually seen in the same person. Other causes of colitis include allergies, chronic amebic dysentery and other intestinal infections and persistent use of laxatives.

Other terms used synonymously with spastic colitis include mucous colitis and irritable bowel syndrome. The treatment is difficult because it is hard to correct the underlying cause. In addition to a bland diet, antispasmodic drugs and avoidance of laxatives, a short course with a tranquilizer may be necessary. Although strenuous exercise may, under some circumstances, aggravate your colitis, moderate exercise is encouraged. Rest is not particularly helpful.

Q—I have a bowel movement every time I finish a meal. What causes this?

A—Eating a meal is a natural stimulus to the entire digestive tract. In most persons this results in a bowel movement within an hour after finishing breakfast. When the stimulus is strong enough to cause a movement within a few minutes after every meal, the victim usually has an irritable colon.

Q—I have four or five loose stools a day. My doctor prescribed paregoric which helps but the condition returns when I stop taking the medicine. What should I do?

A—Paregoric is a very valuable drug for slowing the movements of the digestive tract but it is not advised for the treatment of chronic colitis. You should consult a specialist in gastrointestinal diseases.

Q—Will diarrhea eventually stop by itself?

A—Only if the cause is removed. The acute diarrhea of food poisoning is usually self-limited but the chronic diarrhea of mucous colitis requires expert treatment to bring it under control.

Q—I have had several attacks of spastic colitis. My doctor is giving me Combid. What is it for?

A—This drug is a combination of a tranquilizer and an antispasmodic that is widely used in the treatment of digestive disorders. When used under medical supervision it is safe.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Card playing is of ancient origin. It has been recorded that cards were played in Egypt during the days of the Biblical Joseph, and that their use extended as far east as Hindustan and China at a period long before their introduction into Europe.

Lisbon Schools Set For Vacation

LISBON — Local schools will close next Wednesday afternoon for the Easter vacation. Classes will resume April 9.

Well Contract Awarded By South Beaver Board

Southside Beaver County School Board Directors let a contract for a new well and awarded contracts for school equipment during a meeting Monday night.

Smith Drilling Contractors of Chester will drill a new well on the north end of school property. The area is situated in a valley on the opposite side of Route 151 in front of the school. The location was selected by the building and grounds committee.

Supervising Principal Victor F. Thomas Jr., reported the school has been low on water for some time, with water being hauled by the Shippingport fire department after a cave-in of the school's well.

Three other wells have been drilled in an effort to obtain water, with little or no success, Thomas reported. The committee then was authorized to select a new location for a well. The drilling company will charge by the foot.

FIVE CONTRACTS on school equipment were awarded. Wenger Corp. of Minnesota received a contract for band risers and portable carts at $1,685. These already have been delivered to the school.

Ellis Office Equipment of Beaver Falls will supply five electric typewriters — three of which are mounted with key punch training equipment at a total cost of $1,569.

American Duplicating Exchange of Pittsburgh will supply a spirit duplicator and cabinet at $339.

J. E. Foss, Co., of Pittsburgh, received a contract for $495 for a 16mm sound motion picture projector.

Iron City Wiping Materials Co. of Pittsburgh will supply a floor scrubbing and buffing machine at $364.

Richard Davis was chairman of the committee which awarded the contracts to the lowest bidder meeting the board's specifications.

IN REPLY to a request from the Hopewell - Independence - Racoon jointure involved in litigation with Southern Beaver Joint Schools in Dolphin County Court at Harrisburg, the board passed a resolution not to object to the building of an additional elementary center in Hopewell Township, but stipulated that Southern Beaver favors remaining a separate unit under the county plan.

The resignation of Mrs. Ruth S. Robertson of Greene Township was accepted. She has taught in the schools for 27 years and has an additional eight years experience in another state.

The Rams Athletic Boosters received permission to hold a spring athletic banquet April 20 at the high school cafeteria. It will be prepared by the cafeteria employes under the direction of Mrs. Sara Patterson, manager.

The senior class was authorized to take a trip to Washington, D. C., May 10-13, accompanied by Mrs. Sheryl Javens, class sponsor.

The next board meeting will be May 6.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Baby Food Tips Offered

DEAR HELOISE: For awhile, our baby was eating only a few spoons of baby food at a time. I found that by boiling a very heavy two-ounce measuring glass in water and filling it with strained baby food, then stirring it ... provided about the right amount.

Heloise

Also the heat of the thick glass was enough to warm the food to the right temperature in just a few minutes. This way I was not tempted to reheat used, leftover baby food since I understand it's better not to do so.

RUTH.

Ruth, I think you're just tops for figuring that one out. However, let me hasten to explain something.

For years mothers have complained about baby food being watery after it's been opened, a portion of it used, and the rest set back in the refrigerator. Many mothers add cereal to it so it will thicken again.

We thought it was a certain type or brand that did this but that wasn't the culprit at all!

This watery substance is caused by mothers feeding their baby direct from the jar. The saliva from the baby's mouth which remains on the spoon when mother reaches in for another spoonful, starts a chemical reaction in what's left in the jar of food when you put it back in the refrigerator.

Motto: Don't feed the baby from the jar unless he's going to eat all of it. Better to spoon out just what the baby will eat.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When you need to add or remove a leaf from the dining table and are alone, try this:

Lie on your back under the table, push on the two outside boards of the expanding part with your feet and pull on the legs with your hands. Will sure do the trick!

SUE SMITH.

Sue, I laughed when I read this 'cause I could just see myself lying under the table and have my neighbor or husband walk in. But, by golly, it works.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Instead of keeping waxed paper in the cardboard container it comes in, remove the roll from the carton and slip it into the front of one of your kitchen drawers.

When needed, pull out the amount you want and give a quick pull downward on the front edge of the drawer. Makes a neat, clean tear and is much quicker than fumbling around with the box.

DEAR HELOISE: One of the little things most college students need is a set of bookends.

I got an old shoe box, discarded the top and cut the bottom in half. I set each half on my desk with the cut side up and filled them with books.

The books weight the shoe box down enough to hold them in place nicely.

VERA FERGUSON.

Hip, hip, hooray for this one!!

I've already tried it to keep my cook books together and it works just dandy. Even stuck a piece of adhesive-backed paper on both ends to match my color scheme.

What a saving this will be for many folks besides students.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I have colored and tinted photographs for 20 years, and realize that few people have much consideration to the clothing they wear when their portrait is made by a professional photographer.

Children should be dressed in white or a pastel shade because checks, plaids and floral designs draw the attention to the clothing instead of the face. Dark colors make children look older.

Patterned clothing adds weight to adults. Therefore, if you wish to look your very best, wear plain colors or dark colors to slenderize.

VERA.

DEAR HELOISE: An idea we've been using for some time is making use of our name on expired plastic credit cards.

The cards have to be destroyed anyway, so we just snip off the name and glue it to our luggage, cameras, eyeglasses and anything else of value.

MARGARET WHITE.

U.S. Bombing Target Area Now 25% Of North Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — President Johnson's order halting American bombing north of the 20th Parallel leaves 25 per cent of North Vietnam's area and about 10 per cent of its people still subject to attack.

More than 2 million of North Vietnam's estimated 20 million people live in the three and a half provinces still on the target map, an area that includes the southern panhandle and the densly populated plains around the cities of Thanh Hoa and Vinh.

These are the provinces of Quang Binh, Ha Ting, Nghe An and the southern half of Thanh Hoa.

The area contains the main transit points for North Vietnamese troops and supplies moving south. It also contains almost half of North Vietnam's cultivated land, since the inland mountain area north of Hanoi is barren and sparsely populated. Rice and vegetables are the main crops.

Thanh Hoa and Vinh, the capital of Nghe An Province, are badly battered industrial centers and staging points. The main north-south Highway 1 runs through both. So does the old French Hanoi-Saigon railroad, part of which is still used by the Communists to move troops and supplies despite three years of American bombing and naval bombardment.

An important network of inland canals also runs down the panhandle parallel to the coast.

From Thanh Hoa, military convoys move south along Highway 1 to the Ho Chi Minh trail through Laos. The city has phosphate and chromium mines, processing plants and four bomb-damaged electric power plants. A fifth plant, the 5,000-kilowatt Ban Thach hydroelectric station, is 20 miles northwest of the city, well within the northern limit of the air strike area.

Vinh, 75 miles south of Thanh Hoa, has phosphate plants, shipyards and a 10,000-kilowatt thermoelectric power plant.

One reason given for converting the world's telephone dialing systems to numbers is that letters cause trouble in overseas calls. The Danes have no "W" on their dial. English - speaking users associate the letter "O" with zero, and the French dial includes "Q." Sweden and New Zealand have no letters at all on their telephone dials.

TV Nerves Run In Cycles

Networks go through cycles on what they get scared about, says Joje Hamilton, producer of the Carol Burnett Show and husband of the star. On the March 25 show Carol and Soupy Sales did a sketch about a shy bride on her honeymoon night.

Hal Humphrey

"CBS got nervous just reading it," reports Hamilton. "I finally convinced the guy from the censor department to come and watch it in rehearsal, and he finally okayed it."

-:-

IN THE SAME SHOW, however, Hamilton had to remove two jokes, one about Richard Nixon and the other about Sen. Bobby Kennedy. Carol and Harvey Korman were conversing, and one of them said Nixon had promised peace if elected, and the other said, "That's an awfully high price to pay for peace."

Korman then asked Carol how come Bobby decided to run for the presidency, and her reply was, "I guess he'll do anything to get out of the house."

Both jokes were killed at CBS' behest, although the network says it was a "misunderstanding" when it was reported they had declared an edict against jokes on avowed political candidates.

-:-

"BOTH OF THOSE jokes got applause from the studio audience when we first taped them," said Hamilton, "and we've done jokes on Lynda and Lucy 'Braines' Johnson. Nobody complained from CBS. In fact, after that show Johnson's TV station in Austin picked up the show, which it wasn't carrying before."

Hamilton recently killed an Ethel Kennedy sketch himself, which the writers had brought in, because he didn't think it was funny enough.

"We write comedy to be funny, not controversial," he maintains.

CBS will have to relent on the political jokes, says Hamilton, since the competition among variety shows on TV is getting so fierce. When Phyllis Diller heads up one for NBC next season, Hamilton points out that will make 4 such shows on TV.

HE TRIES in most cases to get someone from the censor department to sit in on rehearsal of Carol's show.

"There's a big difference between seeing a thing done and reading it," says Hamilton.

In last week's show Carol and Barbara McNair did a takeoff on the "I Spy" series, and in one line Carol says, "We have to go to Mississippi." Barbara wails, "Why do we have to go there?" Well, the censor didn't want the word Mississippi used, but Hamilton left it in. "We'd have been in the same trouble if I'd changed it to the South," he says.

A sketch about an Ashley Malice, who obviously was George Wallace, got complaints when Ashley laid the Confederate flag on his desk down, and it wasn't even intended in the sketch as a derogatory move, according to Hamilton.

WRITERS have included Italian and Irish hoods in Carol's sketches, without any beefs.

There was a big flap earlier this season when a bit was done on Japanese, French and Salvic airlines. A Polish-American group took it personally, or one man at the head of the group did, when a passenger asked the stewardess, "Who wants to go to Poland?"

"Ethnic humor is all right if it's done by its own people," Hamilton says. "A Jew can tell a joke on the Jews and a Pole on a Pole, but not on each other."

SPONSOR sensitivity is still a headache to producers, too. One week there was a line in Carol's show about taking an aspirin. The Anacin people (a sponsor of Carol's) objected but Hamilton fixed it by moving their commercial to the following week in this case—all because he thought the word "aspirin" came over funnier than "Anacin."

All in all, Hamilton thinks that perhaps TV is loosening up somewhat on its bans, and cites the NBC "Tonight" show as an example. Johnny Carson and his guests get by with some pretty risque material. Of course, it's late at night when everyone gets the idea that no one else is looking at TV.

TV Nerves Run In Cycles

Networks go through cycles on what they get scared about, says Joje Hamilton, producer of the Carol Burnett Show and husband of the star. On the March 25 show Carol and Soupy Sales did a sketch about a shy bride on her honeymoon night.

Hal Humphrey

"CBS got nervous just reading it," reports Hamilton. "I finally convinced the guy from the censor department to come and watch it in rehearsal, and he finally okayed it."

-:-

IN THE SAME SHOW, however, Hamilton had to remove two jokes, one about Richard Nixon and the other about Sen. Bobby Kennedy. Carol and Harvey Korman were conversing, and one of them said Nixon had promised peace if elected, and the other said, "That's an awfully high price to pay for peace."

Korman then asked Carol how come Bobby decided to run for the presidency, and her reply was, "I guess he'll do anything to get out of the house."

Both jokes were killed at CBS' behest, although the network says it was a "misunderstanding" when it was reported they had declared an edict against jokes on avowed political candidates.

-:-

"BOTH OF THOSE jokes got applause from the studio audience when we first taped them," said Hamilton, "and we've done jokes on Lynda and Lucy 'Braines' Johnson. Nobody complained from CBS. In fact, after that show Johnson's TV station in Austin picked up the show, which it wasn't carrying before."

Hamilton recently killed an Ethel Kennedy sketch himself, which the writers had brought in, because he didn't think it was funny enough.

"We write comedy to be funny, not controversial," he maintains.

CBS will have to relent on the political jokes, says Hamilton, since the competition among variety shows on TV is getting so fierce. When Phyllis Diller heads up one for NBC next season, Hamilton points out that will make 4 such shows on TV.

HE TRIES in most cases to get someone from the censor department to sit in on rehearsal of Carol's show.

"There's a big difference between seeing a thing done and reading it," says Hamilton.

In last week's show Carol and Barbara McNair did a takeoff on the "I Spy" series, and in one line Carol says, "We have to go to Mississippi." Barbara wails, "Why do we have to go there?" Well, the censor didn't want the word Mississippi used, but Hamilton left it in. "We'd have been in the same trouble if I'd changed it to the South," he says.

A sketch about an Ashley Malice, who obviously was George Wallace, got complaints when Ashley laid the Confederate flag on his desk down, and it wasn't even intended in the sketch as a derogatory move, according to Hamilton.

WRITERS have included Italian and Irish hoods in Carol's sketches, without any beefs.

There was a big flap earlier this season when a bit was done on Japanese, French and Salvic airlines. A Polish-American group took it personally, or one man at the head of the group did, when a passenger asked the stewardess, "Who wants to go to Poland?"

"Ethnic humor is all right if it's done by its own people," Hamilton says. "A Jew can tell a joke on the Jews and a Pole on a Pole, but not on each other."

SPONSOR sensitivity is still a headache to producers, too. One week there was a line in Carol's show about taking an aspirin. The Anacin people (a sponsor of Carol's) objected but Hamilton fixed it by moving their commercial to the following week in this case—all because he thought the word "aspirin" came over funnier than "Anacin."

All in all, Hamilton thinks that perhaps TV is loosening up somewhat on its bans, and cites the NBC "Tonight" show as an example. Johnny Carson and his guests get by with some pretty risque material. Of course, it's late at night when everyone gets the idea that no one else is looking at TV.

Bus And Auto Hit On W. 5th

A transit bus and an auto were damaged slightly in a collision Tuesday at 3:41 p. m. on W. 5th St. 30 feet east of Jefferson St., police reported.

The mishap involved a 1968 sedan driven byy Eddie C. Morehead, 21, of 841 Fairview St. and a 1957 model bus owned by John R. Campbell of Park Way and operated by James H. Lawrence, 52, of 2129 Ohio Ave. Both vehicles were westbound.

Morehead told police he halted because another auto stopped suddenly in front of him. Then, he said, his car was hit from the rear by the bus.

Lawrence told police he was unable to halt in time. There was damage to the right rear quarter panel and bumper of the auto and the right front of the bus.

A collision Tuesday at 8:55 p. m. on Pennsylvania Ave. 75 feet east of Boyce St. damaged a 1967 model panel truck driven by Donald L. Board, 17, of 1104 Riverview St. and a 1960 sedan operated by Nancy A. Wilkinson, 21, of Dohne St., officers said.

Board, driving a truck owned by Bert William of 1812 Harvey Ave., said he pulled out of a service station lot and the young woman — driving away from a cafe's parking lot across the street — hit the truck on the left rear panel. The young woman reported the truck hit her car as she pulled off a parking lot. The right front fender of the car was scratched, police said.

Jail cooks served 4,167 meals in March at an average daily cost of $1.12 a prisoner, the sheriff said.

His office at the courthouse accepted 20 sets of fox feet and ears for the $3 bounty during the month. Fees totaling $777 were collected.

Sheriff's deputies last month served 345 papers, and handled 5,249 radio transmissions and 1,804 phone calls at the jail.

Meanwhile, the commission set an examination April 20 at 7 p.m. to draw up an eligibility list for the $400-a-month post of billing machine operator in the city water department. Bus And Auto Hit On W. 5th

A transit bus and an auto were damaged slightly in a collision Tuesday at 3:41 p. m. on W. 5th St. 30 feet east of Jefferson St., police reported.

The mishap involved a 1968 sedan driven byy Eddie C. Morehead, 21, of 841 Fairview St. and a 1957 model bus owned by John R. Campbell of Park Way and operated by James H. Lawrence, 52, of 2129 Ohio Ave. Both vehicles were westbound.

Morehead told police he halted because another auto stopped suddenly in front of him. Then, he said, his car was hit from the rear by the bus.

Lawrence told police he was unable to halt in time. There was damage to the right rear quarter panel and bumper of the auto and the right front of the bus.

A collision Tuesday at 8:55 p. m. on Pennsylvania Ave. 75 feet east of Boyce St. damaged a 1967 model panel truck driven by Donald L. Board, 17, of 1104 Riverview St. and a 1960 sedan operated by Nancy A. Wilkinson, 21, of Dome St., officers said.

Board, driving a truck owned by Bert Willison of 1812 Harvey Ave., said he pulled out of a service station lot and the young woman — driving away from a cafe's parking lot across the street — hit the truck on the left rear panel. The young woman reported the truck hit her car as she pulled off a parking lot. The right front fender of the car was scratched, police said.

Jail cooks served 4,167 meals in March at an average daily cost of $1.12 a prisoner, the sheriff siad.

His office at the courthouse accepted 20 sets of fox feet and ears for the $3 bounty during the month. Fees totaling $777 were collected.

Sheriff's deputies last month served 345 papers, and handled 5,249 radio transmissions and 1,604 phone calls at the jail.

Lone Applicant Wins Passing Grade In Test

A lone applicant in a field of four scored a passing grade in a Civil Service Commission test held March 26 to draw up a new eligibility list for fire department posts, the commission said Tuesday night after grading the papers at City Hall.

The passing grade went to Karl Lee Kontnier of Densmore Ave.

Meanwhile, the commission set an examination April 30 at 7 p.m. to draw up an eligibility list for the $400-a-month post of billing machine operator in the city water department. Applications may be filed until April 20 at noon. The age bracket is 25-50 and the test is open to both male and female applicants.

Junior Editors Quiz on HARPSICHORD

junior editors wednesday april 2 harpsichord set 2 col 8 pt indent

QUESTION: How does a harpsichord differ from a piano?

ANSWER: One of the first stringed instruments was the harp (1), in which each string has a separate note. About 1300, experiments were made laying such an instrument on its side and using a keyboard so that depressing each key would sound one of the strings. Two main systems of sounding strings were used. In the clavichord, the strings were struck from below, leading to the development of the piano, where felt-tipped hammers sound the strings. In the other system, the strings were plucked by quills (see drawings). The quills were hinged to jacks and after plucking, folded in when the packs slid down. This system, used in the small spinet (2), led to the harpsichord (lower pictures). This was extremely popular in the 1600's and 1700's, but later lost popularity to the piano, which had a more expressive and singing tone. But there is still a fascination in the reedy sound of the harpsichord. Mainly through the influence of the great musician Wanda Landowska, interest in this beautiful instrument has returned.

No President Was Ever Born In Trailer

Jumping To Conclusions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

If many more millionaires drop out of the presidential sweepstakes, the nation may yet elect a poor man to the White House. A number of presidents were born in log cabins. Maybe in this age of wheels we may get one who was born in a trailer.

College professors are more likely to be conversational bores than are bank bandits, truck drivers or politicians. They tend to treat the world as if it were their classroom, filled with a captive audience. They can't simply discuss a thing. Habit compels them to deliver a lecture.

Manhattan cab drivers are like top business executives—they don't get ulcers, they give them.

Here's how to tell if a girl really loves you. Take a white thread and put it in plain view on the lower part of the arm of your coat. If your girl doesn't notice it at once and pluck it off, she's got her mind on herself, not you.

One of the worst thing about being a former Boy Scout is that you can't sit—without feeling guilty—in a crowded bus where ladies are standing, even though they be half your age and twice as rugged. All men over 40 or 50 should be legalty freed from the obligations of chivalry which ruled them when their knighthood was in flower.

It is always fascinating to watch a small child pick his nose in public. He is unconsciously exercising a pleasurable animal freedom which custom now denies to such dignitaries as kings, diplomats and symphony orchestra conductors.

You can never tell how international crises will affect the common man. A friend of ours said he had a nightmare recently in which a man with a pair of dental pliers was chasing him around Times Square and trying to get the gold fillings out of his back teeth. He said his dread pursuer had the features of Gen. Charles de Gaulle.

Nothing makes a fellow feel more downright inferior than to find his name misspelled in the phone book.

If people worried as much about keeping their reputations as spotless as they do the fenders of their new cars, this would indeed be the best of all possible worlds.

Politics knows no such back biting as exists among amateur gardeners. Each suburbanite sneers at the way every neighbor stakes out the tomato plants in his backyard Eden.

Looking for someone to feel sorry for? How about hatcheck girls? They'll have a tough time living on their lean tips in the hot weather months ahead.

The cheapest way to buy friendship is to give a two-bit cigar to a guy who usually smokes the two-for-a-quarter kind. He'll remember you warmly for months.

This spring may mark the final heyday of miniskirts, men—so enjoy, enjoy! Those who knocked them most while they were here will secretly miss them the most when they are gone.

UAW Local's Vote Slated On Contract

CINCINNATI (AP)— Nearly 2,000 members of United Auto Workers Local 674 at the Fisher Body Co. here will take a ratification vote soon on a tentative contract agreed on Tuesday.

The tentative settlement climaxed a 30½-hour bargaining session between representatives of Fisher and the local which have held 171 separate new contract meetings since last July.

A General Motors contract was approved last fall but local issues at Fisher, a GM division, hampered a contract agreement.

The UAW members struck the Fisher plant five different times in November and December of 1967.

It has been estimated that English is spoken by 250 million people and is the world's second most important language in that respect.

Smith Names Lantz Tax Commissioner

CHARLESTON — Clifford G. Lantz, 36-year-old former Fairmont attorney and assistant tax commissioner for the last six years, will become West Virginia's tax commissioner on April 15.

Gov. Hulett Smith appointed the Huntington native to the post yesterday after tax commissioner G. Thomas Battle announced his resignation to return to private law practice in Charleston.

Smith announced the appointment at a news conference yesterday afternoon and Secretary of State Robert Bailey administered the oath of office.

Though the Pony Express has an enduring place in American history, the Missouri - to - California communication line existed only 18 months. The express was doomed by the establishment of telegraph lines to the West Coast in 1861.

Young Votes Against Excise Tax Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)— Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, Tuesday voted against an excise tax bill amendment to provide for a 10 per cent income tax increase and a $6 billion cut in federal spending. The Senate approved the amendment 53-35.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, did not vote but was announced as paired for the amendment.

5 New Members Are Enrolled By Sportsman Club

Five new members were enrolled when the Chester-Newell Sportsman's Club met Monday night in the clubhouse, Kenneth Williams, president, has announced.

They are Albert Lyons, Fred McGillian, James McGillian, Joseph Reed and Frank Sisler.

Plans were completed for a trophy trial outing for April 21. The public event will begin at 8 a. m. with a $3 entry fee. Wayne Harpold was appointed to hire "outside" judges for the trial. All members were reminded to bring a coverdish.

No President Was Ever Born In Trailer

Jumping To Conclusions

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

If many more millionaires drop out of the presidential sweepstakes, the nation may yet elect a poor man to the White House. A number of presidents were born in log cabins. Maybe in this age of wheels we may get one who was born in a trailer.

College professors are more likely to be conversational bores than are bank bandits, truck drivers or politicians. They tend to treat the world as if it were their classroom, filled with a captive audience. They can't simply discuss a thing. Habit compels them to deliver a lecture.

Manhattan cab drivers are like top business executives—they don't get ulcers, they give them.

Here's how to tell if a girl really loves you. Take a white thread and put it in plain view on the lower part of the arm of your coat. If your girl doesn't notice it at once and pluck it off, she's got her mind on herself, not you.

One of the worst thing about being a former Boy Scout is that you can't sit—without feeling guilty—in a crowded bus where ladies are standing, even though they be half your age and twice as rugged. All men over 40 or 50 should be legalty freed from the obligations of chivalry which ruled them when their knighthood was in flower.

It is always fascinating to watch a small child pick his nose in public. He is unconsciously exercising a pleasurable animal freedom which custom now denies to such dignitaries as kings, diplomats and symphony orchestra conductors.

You can never tell how international crises will affect the common man. A friend of ours said he had a nightmare recently in which a man with a pair of dental pliers was chasing him around Times Square and trying to get the gold fillings out of his back teeth. He said his dream pursuer had the features of Gen. Charles de Gaulle.

Nothing makes a fellow feel more downright inferior than to find his name misspelled in the phone book.

If people worried as much about keeping their reputations as spotless as they do the fenders of their new cars, this would indeed be the best of all possible worlds.

Politics knows no such backbiting as exists among amateur gardeners. Each suburbanite sneers at the way every neighbor stakes out the tomato plants in his backyard Eden.

Looking for someone to feel sorry for? How about hatcheck girls? They'll have a tough time living on their lean tips in the hot weather months ahead.

The cheapest way to buy friendship is to give a two-bit cigar to a guy who usually smokes the two-for-a-quarter kind. He'll remember you warmly for months.

This spring may mark the final heyday of miniskirts, men—so enjoy, enjoy! Those who knocked them most while they were here will secretly miss them the most when they are gone.

UAW Local's Vote Slated On Contract

CINCINNATI (AP)— Nearly 2,000 members of United Auto Workers Local 674 at the Fisher Body Co. here will take a ratification vote soon on a tentative contract agreed on Tuesday.

The tentative settlement climaxed a 30½-hour bargaining session between representatives of Fisher and the local which have held 171 separate new contract meetings since last July.

A General Motors contract was approved last fall but local issues at Fisher, a GM division, hampered a contract agreement.

The UAW members struck the Fisher plant five different times in November and December of 1967.

It has been estimated that English is spoken by 250 million people and is the world's second most important language in that respect.

Smith Names Lantz Tax Commissioner

CHARLESTON — Clifford G. Lantz, 36-year-old former Fairmont attorney and assistant tax commissioner for the last six years, will become West Virginia's tax commissioner on April 15.

Gov. Hulett Smith appointed the Huntington native to the post yesterday after tax commissioner G. Thomas Battle announced his resignation to return to private law practice in Charleston.

Smith announced the appointment at a news conference yesterday afternoon and Secretary of State Robert Bailey administered the oath of office.

Though the Pony Express has an enduring place in American history, the Missouri - to - California communication line existed only 18 months. The express was doomed by the establishment of telegraph lines to the West Coast in 1861.

Young Votes Against Excise Tax Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)— Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, Tuesday voted against an excise tax bill amendment to provide for a 10 per cent income tax increase and a $6 billion cut in federal spending. The Senate approved the amendment 53-35.

Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, did not vote but was announced as paired for the amendment.
